Prison Area Surrounded By Guards

Entire Operation Carried Out Under Strictest Secrecy

MEMPHIS, Tenn. (AP) — James Earl Ray, handcuffed and wearing what appeared to be a bullet-proof vest, was whisked into the Shelby County jail before dawn today to await trial on a charge of murdering Dr. Martin Luther King Jr.

Ray was placed in his cell at the jail at 4:34 a.m. CDT, 46 minutes after he arrived at the nearby Memphis Naval Air Station aboard a U.S. Air Force Boeing jet transport from London. He had left London about midnight—6 p.m. CDT—so that the entire trip took about 10½ hours.

From the Navy base, a blue-and-white prison van, surrounded by a half-dozen police cars and an equal number of motorcycles, roared into the parking lot behind the jail building at 4:29 a.m. CDT.

Newsmen Barred

No newsman was allowed to see Ray, but Sheriff William Morris distributed photographs of the prisoner showing him dressed in what the sheriff told a news conference was "protective gear." He appeared to be dressed in a bullet-proof vest and he was handcuffed to a heavy leather belt.

"We took custody of Mr. Ray at 3:48 a.m. aboard a Boeing 707 at Millington," the sheriff said, referring to the Navy base at suburban Millington. "He arrived at the jail at 4:29 a.m. and was in his cell at 4:34."

The sheriff said Criminal Court Judge W. Preston Battle has been chosen to hear the murder trial, but "no courtroom has been selected for the trial yet." He added that no date for arraignment on the murder indictment has been set.

Judge Battle already has issued his first order in the case, the sheriff said. This forbids cameras, tape recorders or other similar devices from the courthouse-jail building, its grounds or sidewalk surrounding the structure—and forbids anyone connected with the case from giving interviews or otherwise discussing the case outside the courthouse or with anyone but lawyers connected with the case.

As photographers took Morris' picture during the news conference, the sheriff went on to explain that the "no publicity" order would go into effect immediately after the news conference.

The van carrying Ray to the jail was preceded by another police car loaded with officers who immediately jumped out and joined a security guard of deputies who had taken up stations across the parking lot driveway 11 minutes before the prisoner arrived.

Reformers Discuss Plans

Soviet Seen Readying Offensive Against Czech Liberal Leaders

By PETER REHAK
Associated Press Writer

PRAGUE, Czechoslovakia (AP) — Czechoslovak Communist party leaders discussed defense of their liberalization program against the Soviet threat today while the Russian party pledged help to a 35,000 man People's Militia here that has sided with the old guard.

Pravda, the Soviet Communist party newspaper named the armed militia, made up of workers who backed Antonin Novotny, the ousted Stalinist ruler, as a leading foe of the liberalization drive.

The militia, reportedly in contact with the Soviets, has been a target of Czechoslovak liberals who demand it be scrapped.

This new Soviet offensive against the reformers came as the 110 members of the Czechoslovak party's Central Committee were expected to give their overwhelming support to party chief Alexander Dubcek, who told the Czechoslovak people Thursday that liberalization will continue but "our road will not be easy."

Pravda Continues Blast

In Moscow, Pravda kept up the war of words against the Czechoslovak liberals, repeating the charge that "counter-revolutionary" forces in Czechoslovakia "threaten the . . . foundations of the Socialist system."

The Soviet Communist party newspaper, in a long front-page editorial, promised "all necessary help" for Czechoslovak hard-liners. The Soviet press has made no mention of declarations of support for the new Prague government from other Communist parties.

It also ignored Dubcek's speech, in which he declared: "The people will not permit a return to the pre-January days." He referred to the regime of Stalinist Antonin Novotny, whom he displaced as Communist party chief at the start of the year.

Pravda also said there were reports in Prague's "journalistic circles" that Czechoslovak security police had discovered U.S. weapons hidden on Czech soil near the West German border.

Pravda said the weapons were pistols, machine guns and submarchine guns "suitable for . . . small rebel groups." It said they "obviously have been smuggled in from West Germany" for anti-Communists.

Similarity Noted

Observers in Moscow noted a similarity between the Pravda article and Soviet charges during the 1956 Hungarian uprising that caches of U.S. weapons were discovered in Hungary.

Pravda also charged that the U.S. Central Intelligence Agency and the Pentagon are trying to subvert "unstable elements" in Czechoslovakia.

Dubcek spoke on television after his regime had prepared a statement rejectnig the demand of the Soviet Union and four orthodox Communist allies for reversal of the liberalization drive.

The demand came from a conference in Warsaw of leaders of the Soviet Union, Poland, East Germany, Hungary and Bulgaria, all of whom fear Czechoslovakia's example may stir up liberal ferment in their nations.

In a pointed reminder to Moscow that Czechoslovakia does not stand alone, Dubcek in his speech said he was grateful for the support of "many fraternal parties"—meaning those in Yugoslavia, Romania, France and Italy.

Boy's Rites Set After Drowning

Services will be held Monday for an 11-year-old city boy who drowned Thursday night while wading in Beaver Creek at Grimms Bridge.

James Durand (Randy) Burchett, son of Mrs. Shirley June Burchett of 197 Maine Blvd., was with two brothers in the creek about 8:45 p.m. at the "big hole" downstream from the bridge when he slipped into deep water.

St. Clair Township Chief Police Constable Robert Jones said the boy, a sixth - grader, was wading with his brothers, Mark, 8, and Butch, 14.

The three had gone to the creek with Eugene Greathouse, 22, of New Cumberland RD 2 who was washing his auto.

Jail Sentence Given Trio In Local Escape

Johnston, Hampson And Accomplice Get 6-Month Terms

Municipal Judge Samuel M. Chertoff today decreed six-month County Jail sentences for two young men who broke out of the City Jail Monday night and an accomplice who furnished the hacksaw blade and wire-cutters that enabled them to cut through a bar and a screen to gain brief freedom.

Keith A. Johnston, 18, of Vine St. and Thomas Hampson, 21, whose last known address was the County Jail, were sentenced after pleading guilty to charges of escaping from confinement.

Leroy Stull, 20, of Diamond Alley, identified by the escapees as the person who furnished the hacksaw blade and wire cutters by handing them through a window to Hampson, drew a similar sentence after the judge convicted him of aiding in an escape. Stull pleaded not guilty.

Johnston and Hampson fled the local jail while awaiting preliminary hearings in Municipal Court. Hampson was accused of driving an auto without the owner's consent — a count on which he was held to the grand jury after his recapture. Johnston was charged

Cambodia Seizes U.S. Patrol Boat

SAIGON (AP) — The Cambodian navy was reported today to have seized an American patrol boat in the Mekong Delta and arrested 11 Americans and one South Vietnamese aboard.

U.S. military authorities in Saigon confirmed that a Navy landing craft was missing in the delta but said it had 10 Americans aboard. There was no mention of any South Vietnamese passenger. It was assumed to be the boat which a newspaper in Phnom Penh, the Cambodian capital, said was seized a mile inside Cambodian river waters.

American authorities said the missing landing craft left Dong Tam, a base near the delta city of My Tho, on July 15 and headed up river for Binh Thuy, another base just up river from Can Tho, the delta's largest city. The trip up the Mekong and Bassac rivers and across a major canal should have taken two days, but the boat did not arrive on the night of July 17.

Search Was Underway

U.S. headquarters said a search for the past two days had failed to produce any trace of the boat.

It was assumed that the United States would send Cambodia a request for return of the boat and its crew, using the Australian Embassy in Phnom Penh as the channel. Australia has represented U.S. interests in Cambodia since Prince Norodom Sihanouk, Cambodia's chief of state, broke relations with Washington in 1965.

In the course of the Vietnam war, several small American craft have been seized by the Cambodians after straying across the border in the delta. All the crews have been returned, although the Cambodians have reportedly kept one small landing boat.

Jurisdiction Appeal Rejected By Judge

PAINESVILLE, Ohio (AP)—Township police can't arrest a motorist for speeding on a state highway because such roads are the jurisdiction of the State Highway Patrol and sheriff's office, Common Pleas Judge John F. Clair Jr. of Lake County held Thursday.

Judge Clair rejected a prosecutor's office appeal from a municipal court judge's decision dismissing a speeding charge against Joseph G. Wakin, 36, of Geneva. Wakin was stopped by Madison Township police last March on U.S. 20 and accused of going 80 miles an hour.

Signing Set Monday For Airport Grant

LISBON — Cameras will focus on the county commissioners' big table at 1 p.m. Monday as officials sign a grant agreement with the Federal Aviation Agency for construction of the Columbiana County airport in Madison Township.

The federal government will furnish $216,876 toward the project. The Ohio Department of Aviation has allocated $100,000 and the county's share will be $95,742, for which bonds will be issued, plus a credit of $41,500 for the land.

Roland A. Getz, Inc., of Mansfield is awaiting the signal from Mosure & Fok, consulting engineer, to begin work on the $355,018 contract. Bids were opened April 15. Commissioners said groundbreaking could take place next week. 4

The site is the former Swaney Airport just north of Glenmoor. Getz will construct a paved runway 3,500 feet by 75 feet, with a taxiway, parking apron and turnaround, and install runway lights, beacon and controls.

Some Relief Looms From Muggy Heat

Relief from the muggy weather is on the way, according to the weatherman.

Cooler, drier air is preparing to move in as the result of a cold front. The front is being preceded by cloudiness and a rather extensive band of showers.

The rain is due to disappear by tonight, however, with the forecast calling for fair and cooler. It is to be mostly sunny and not so warm Saturday.

The temperatures here and in the area soared into the 90s yesterday, making it one of the most uncomfortable days of the season.

Temperatures through Wednesday will average near normal, with highs in the low 80s north to the upper 80s south. Lows will be in the 60s.

Official Ceremonies Saturday At 9

Highlandtown Lake Opening Set

Columbiana County's newest recreational facility — Highlandtown Lake — will be opened officially to the public Saturday.

Various state officials from the Department of Natural Resources at Columbus will participate in the informal ceremony at 9 a. m.

Fishing lines will be cast into the lake to mark the opening for general use. The 170-acre impoundment is located on the Highlandtown Wildlife Area, off Route 39, between Wellsville and Salineville.

THE TWO new boat launching ramps and toilet facilities will be opened for use for the first time. The area also has two blacktopped parking lots.

The program is being cosponsored by the Division of Wildlife and The Review. A fishing contest will be held from 9 a.m. to 1 p.m., with several prizes to be provided by The Review. Registration for the various categories will be conducted near a concession stand to be operated by the Auxiliary of the Highlandtown Volunteer Fire Department.

The program will include brief remarks by Dick Midden, a deputy director for recreation and forests; Bill Southan, executive assistant to the director of natural resources; Dan Armbruster, chief of the Division of Wildlife, and Rep. Clarence Wetzel of Lisbon.

Harry Stewart, Review outdoor writer, will be master of ceremonies. Following the "casting," dignitaries will be taken on a boat tour of the lake.

Public boating will be allowed from now on, but no gasoline outboard motors will be permitted on the lake. Electric motors of up to four horsepower have been approved for use.

Gov. James A. Rhodes, who will be unable to atend the ceremony, will be represented by Southan, a former East Liverpool resident.

INVITATIONS have been mailed various officials of the county, Washington Township, East Liverpool, Wellsville and Salineville.

Wildlife officials pointed out there will be a restriction on the fishing. Any bass or muskellunge caught must be returned. All other fish may be kept, however. The restriction will be removed in September 1969.

The lake has been several years in the making, with the earthen dam almost two years ago. Numerous fish of various species have been stocked.

The fishing contest will be focused on catches of catfish and bluegills. It will be open to men, women and children.

Potters Pick Anaheim For 1969 Convention

The 1969 convention of the International Brotherhood of Operative Potters will be held in Anaheim, home of the California Angels and Disneyland.

Delegates to the IBOP's 74th convention in Vancouver, British Columbia, prepared to adjourn this afternoon after picking the southern California city as the site of the next session.

In other significant convention actions, the delegates endorsed the AFL-CI policy program and renewed endorsement of a boycot against Kingsport Press in Kingsport, Tenn. The convention has been under way since Monday morning at the Hotel Vancouver.

Reformers Discuss Plans

Soviet Seen Readying Offensive Against Czech Liberal Leaders

By PETER REHAK
Associated Press Writer

PRAGUE, Czechoslovakia (AP) — Czechoslovak Communist party leaders discussed defense of their liberalization program against the Soviet threat today while the Russian party pledged help to a 35,000 man People's Militia here that has sided with the old guard.

Pravda, the Soviet Communist party newspaper named the armed militia, made up of workers who backed Antonin Novotny, the ousted Stalinist ruler, as a leading foe of the liberalization drive.

The militia, reportedly in contact with the Soviets, has been a target of Czechoslovak liberals who demand it be scrapped.

This new Soviet offensive against the reformers came as the 110 members of the Czechoslovak party's Central Committee were expected to give their overwhelming support to party chief Alexander Dubcek, who told the Czechoslovak people Thursday that liberalization will continue but "our road will not be easy."

Pravda Continues Blast

In Moscow, Pravda kept up the war of words against the Czechoslovak liberals, repeating the charge that "counter-revolutionary" forces in Czechoslovakia "threaten the . . . foundations of the Socialist system."

The Soviet Communist party newspaper, in a long front-page editorial, promised "all necessary help" for Czechoslovak hard-liners. The Soviet press has made no mention of declarations of support for the new Prague government from other Communist parties.

It also ignored Dubcek's speech, in which he declared: "The people will not permit a return to the pre-January days." He referred to the regime of Stalinist Antonin Novotny, whom he displaced as Communist party chief at the start of the year.

Pravda also said there were reports in Prague's "journalistic circles" that Czechoslovak security police had discovered U.S. weapons hidden on Czech soil near the West German border.

Pravda said the weapons were pistols, machine guns and submachine guns "suitable for . . . small rebel groups." It said they "obviously have been smuggled in from West Germany" for anti-Communists.

Similarity Noted

Observers in Moscow noted a similarity between the Pravda article and Soviet charges during the 1956 Hungarian uprising that caches of U.S. weapons were discovered in Hungary.

Pravda also charged that the U.S. Central Intelligence Agency and the Pentagon are trying to subvert "unstable elements" in Czechoslovakia.

Dubcek spoke on television after his regime had prepared a statement rejectnig the demand of the Soviet Union and four orthodox Communist allies for reversal of the liberalization drive.

The demand came from a conference in Warsaw of leaders of the Soviet Union, Poland, East Germany, Hungary and Bulgaria, all of whom fear Czechoslovakia's example may stir up liberal ferment in their nations.

In a pointed reminder to Moscow that Czechoslovakia does not stand alone, Dubcek in his speech said he was grateful for the support of "many fraternal parties"—meaning those in Yugoslavia, Romania, France and Italy.

Numerous Ideas Studied

Various Devices Sought To Prevent 'Skyjacking'

WASHINGTON (AP) — Devices to photograph passengers boarding a plane, keep them under secret inflight surveillance or to detect large pieces of metal like a pistol are being considered as ways to prevent airline hijacking.

But both government and private agencies admit little is being done or can be done immediately to prevent the crimes, which carry a maximum penalty of death.

"We are studying numerous methods to be able possibly to detect firearms and to prevent and deter hijacking. But none of these methods has shown itself presently acceptable," said Richard Swift, assistant director of the Federal Aviation Administration's fight standards service.

Swift said one area of research involves a device which would detect any sizable metal object, such as a concealed gun, but would not react to smaller articles such as key rings or belt buckles.

William Becker of the Air Transport Association said the airlines will have meetings next month to "really take a close look" at one particular device which may be produced commercially.

The device would be installed at gates to film boarding passengers, hopefully it would detect any indication that could justify separation of the individual for closer inspection.

Swift said the FAA has trained some employes to travel anonymously on various flights, watching for potentially dangerous passengers. Each such employe carries a revolver, handcuffs, blackjack and a device for spraying tear gas.

The FAA also is considering use of viewers inside the cockpit, giving the flight crew surveillance over the passenger cabin, as well as means of increasing the cockpit's security.

By law, the doors to cockpits are kept locked except on takeoff and landing. As the result of an agreement reached in 1965, most airliners also now have a one-way mirror in the cockpit door, enabling the flight crew to peer through without being seen.

Door jams also have been installed, to prevent the doors from being kicked in. But the airlines have resisted a proposal that cockpit doors be armorplated. Pilots contend that the moment a passenger produces a gun and threatens to use it, he has the plane in hostage whether the cockpit door is locked or open, armored or not.

Future Seen 'Uncertain' For Gun Bill

WASHINGTON (AP) — A bill banning the mail-order sales of rifles, shotguns and ammunition has picked up support from the House Republican leadership. But it still faces a blizzard of more than 100 amendments which could strengthen it, weaken it or kill it.

The unusual volume of amendments readied for today's session was expected to delay a final vote until Saturday or possibly early next week.

The amendments range from minor exemptions to lessen the impact on hunters and collectors to provisions for registration of all firearms and licensing of owners.

Another proposed major change in the measure as originally asked for by President Johnson would impose mandatory prison sentences for those who carry a gun while committing a felony.

This provision, however, has drawn opposition mainly from congressmen who say it raises cionstitutional questions.

Rep. Gerald R. Ford of Michigan, House Republican leader, lined up Thursday behind the basic Johnson administration bill which would ban the sale of rifles, shotguns and ammunition through the mails and over the counter to residents of nonadjoining states.

The bill would ban all sales of rifles and ammo to people under 18.

This was the way the bill was reported out of the House Judiciary Committee last week and Ford told newsmen "If the committee bill is changed significantly either way—stronger or weaker—it is probable the bill will be defeated."

"If we want to get meaningful legislation," Ford added, "I think we better stick with the committee bill."

Ford thus aligned himself with two other key members of the House who have said they were opposed to registration and licensing for fear such an amendment would jeopardize passage of any bill at all.

Numerous Ideas Studied

Various Devices Sought To Prevent 'Skyjacking'

WASHINGTON (AP) — Devices to photograph passengers boarding a plane, keep them under secret inflight surveillance or to detect large pieces of metal like a pistol are being considered as ways to prevent airline hijacking.

But both government and private agencies admit little is being done or can be done immediately to prevent the crimes, which carry a maximum penalty of death.

"We are studying numerous methods to be able possibly to detect firearms and to prevent and deter hijacking. But none of these methods has shown itself presently acceptable," said Richard Swift, assistant director of the Federal Aviation Administration's fight standards service.

Swift said one area of research involves a device which would detect any sizable metal object, such as a concealed gun, but would not react to smaller articles such as key rings or belt buckles.

William Becker of the Air Transport Association said the airlines will have meetings next month to "really take a close look" at one particular device which may be produced commercially.

The device would be installed at gates to film boarding passengers, hopefully it would detect any indication that could justify separation of the individual for closer inspection.

Swift said the FAA has trained some employes to travel anonymously on various flights, watching for potentially dangerous passengers. Each such employe carries a revolver, handcuffs, blackjack and a device for spraying tear gas.

The FAA also is considering use of viewers inside the cockpit, giving the flight crew surveillance over the passenger cabin, as well as means of increasing the cockpit's security.

By law, the doors to cockpits are kept locked except on takeoff and landing. As the result of an agreement reached in 1965, most airliners also now have a one-way mirror in the cockpit door, enabling the flight crew to peer through without being seen.

Door jams also have been installed, to prevent the doors from being kicked in. But the airlines have resisted a proposal that cockpit doors be armorplated. Pilots contend that the moment a passenger produces a gun and threatens to use it, he has the plane in hostage whether the cockpit door is locked or open, armored or not.

Future Seen 'Uncertain' For Gun Bill

WASHINGTON (AP) — A bill banning the mail-order sales of rifles, shotguns and ammunition has picked up support from the House Republican leadership. But it still faces a blizzard of more than 100 amendments which could strengthen it, weaken it or kill it.

The unusual volume of amendments readied for today's session was expected to delay a final vote until Saturday or possibly early next week.

The amendments range from minor exemptions to lessen the impact on hunters and collectors to provisions for registration of all firearms and licensing of owners.

Another proposed major change in the measure as originally asked for by President Johnson would impose mandatory prison sentences for those who carry a gun while committing a felony.

This provision, however, has drawn opposition mainly from congressmen who say it raises cionstitutional questions.

Rep. Gerald R. Ford of Michigan, House Republican leader, lined up Thursday behind the basic Johnson administration bill which would ban the sale of rifles, shotguns and ammunition through the mails and over the counter to residents of nonadjoining states.

The bill would ban all sales of rifles and ammo to people under 18.

This was the way the bill was reported out of the House Judiciary Committee last week and Ford told newsmen "If the committee bill is changed significantly either way—stronger or weaker—it is probable the bill will be defeated."

"If we want to get meaningful legislation," Ford added, "I think we better stick with the committee bill."

Ford thus aligned himself with two other key members of the House who have said they were opposed to registration and licensing for fear such an amendment would jeopardize passage of any bill at all.

Home Matron Fired On Abuse Of Children

DEFIANCE, Ohio (AP) — Mr. and Mrs. Noval Combs, superintendent and matron of the Defiance County Children's Home, were fired without notice Thursday for alleged "abuse and mistreatment of children in the home."

Mishap Hurts Man, Woman

A Westfield man and a Pleasant Heights woman were taken to City Hospital with injuries suffered when their cars collided Thursday on Bradshaw Ave. about 80 feet east of Ravine St., police reported.

The crash involved a 1966 four-door sedan driven by Paul A. Preston, 24, of MC 19, Westfield, and a 1962 four-door station wagon operated by Eileen V. Horner, 42, of 1756 Dakota Ave. Mrs. Horner suffered a fractured rib and Preston injuries to the left knee.

Preston told officers he was driving east on Bradshaw when the woman suddenly pulled out from the curb in front of him. Because of oncoming traffic, he was unable to avoid a collision, he said.

The woman said she looked for oncoming traffic before pulling from the curb and saw nothing. She said she was leaving an auto parts store and intended to cross the street to a super-market.

Frank E. Irving, 59, of 1209 Jennings Ave. was charged with driving while under the influence of alcohol after his auto hit a parked car Thursday at 9:58 p.m. in the 800 block of Avondale St., officers said.

Police said Irving's northbound 1968 four - door sedan hit a parked 1964 model car owned by Glen W. Huggins of 801 Avondale St.

Pickets Limited By Court Order

LISBON — The Ohio Edison Co. has obtained a Common Pleas Court order enjoining the Utility Workers Union of America Local 118 (AFL-CIO) "from interfering with or obstructing the business and services of the utility" at its Salem plant.

Judge Joel H. Sharp's order, issued Wednesday afternoon on the petition of the plaintiff, limits the defendant to two pickets at each entrance to the company's property.

The petitioner said the firm had a contract with the union, but the workmen have been on strike since noon last Friday. "The defendant union has caused pickets to congregate in front of and around, near and adjacent to the entrances and exits to certain of its properties, including the repair shop on Ellsworth Ave.," the plaintiff states.

Ohio Edison says this has prevented the ingress and egress of trucks and other vehicles and equipment essential for the maintenance of the electrical distribution system operated by the plaintiff.

Judge Sharp said the order is to remain in effect until the petition is heard.

Man's Leg Fractured In Fall At Boat Ramp

Harry M. Jennings, a resident of Goldie's Nursing Home on Thompson Pl., was taken to City Hospital by ambulance. He is in "fair" condition.

Police were notified by telephone about 11:15 a. m. by a resident of the area who said she could hear someone calling for help at the wharf. Patrolman K. J. Montgomery found Jennings lying on his side beside the ditch.

Jennings told the officer he had been picking up paper on the river bank and burning it. As he started to leave, he attempted to step across the 12-inch ditch, but his foot slipped on the brick pavement and he fell.

Federal Funds Set For New Dormitory

CINCINNATI (AP) — Federal funds of $2 million have been approved for construction of a 26-story dormitory at the University of Cincinnati and school officials say building will begin hopefully by September.

Estimated cost of the structure is $10 million, with the Federal Housing Administration furnishing $2 million and UC financing $8 million.

Worker Dies Near Beaver

A 50-year-old Pittsburgh construction worker was crushed to death Thursday afternoon when a large tractor rolled over him on the site of a sewer line installation in Chippewa Township, Beaver County.

John Scull, an employe of the H. J. Schneider Co., died of multiple fractures in the mishap on Pine Grove Rd.

Witnesses said he was riding on the back of the tractor which was ascending a steep slope. When the operator changed gears and attempted to brake the rig, it slipped backward and passed over Scull.

Cincinnati Hit By Strong Storm

CINCINNATI (AP)—A severe thunderstorm accompanied by high winds hit the Cincinnati area Thursday night, felling trees and knocking out power in one large residential section for more than three hours.

Almost an inch was dumped over the city within an hour.

Much of the Mount Airy section was blacked out shortly after the storm moved into the area at 8:32 p. m., and utilities repairmen were still at work at 11:30 p. m.

Residents of the Finneytown area just north of the city reported seeing a funnel cloud shortly before the storm hit, but weathermen said the phenomenon was a "roll" cloud—formed by cold air buildups ahead of the storm.

Several trees were reported knocked down by accompanying winds, but no injuries were reported.

WORLD ALMANAC FACTS

Thomas Gresham, master of the mint for Queen Elizabeth I, is credited with the law that "cheap money drives out dear." Gresham's law is at work today as new silverless U.S. coins freely circulate while older and more valuable silver coins are hoarded. Actually, Oresme and Copernicus first formulated the law, but H. MacLeod, in 1857, popularized the misconception that Gresham had said it first.

Grange Election Set For Sept. 5

The Hookstown Grange will elect officers Sept. 5 at the Grange Hall, it was announced at a meeting Thursday night.

A thank - you letter was read from the Hancock County Children's Home for Easter baskets presented by the grange.

A hayride and cookout for Beaver County Grange youths will be held Aug. 14.

The Hanover - Greene Township Sewing Club will hold a roundup Friday at the hall to judge sewing projects. Winners will take part in county competition.

The next grange meeting will be Aug. 1.

City Motorist Jailed For Monaca Citations

Ours was cited in June for lack of a driver's license and for failure to have an owner's card. He later was arrested on a warrant and fined.

Woman Hurt In Collision

A Wellsville woman driver was injured Thursday afternoon when her car was struck by a pickup truck on Route 39, the Ohio Highway Patrol at Lisbon reported. Two other accidents were investigated yesterday by officers.

Roberta R. Wilks, 48, of Wellsville RD 1 was treated at City Hospital for a neck injury and bruises of the arms after the collision on Route 39 about 6½ miles west of Wellsville at 12:30 p. m.

Officers said she was headed west and stopped for approaching traffic in preparation for making a left turn when her 1963 convertible was struck from the rear by the truck operated by Edwin Downard, 65, of Wellsville RD 1.

Officers said she was headed west and made a left turn onto Depot Rd., lost control and went off the road, hitting the guardrail, then went across the highway and off the east side, going over an embankment and hitting the guy wire.

Minor damage resulted in a collision on Route 154 about a mile east of Lisbon yesterday.

Earl R. Barnhouse, 34, of Logstown Rd., Lisbon, driving a tractor trailer rig, attempted to pass an auto operated by Stephen Belaney, 19, of 754 E. Lincoln Way, Lisbon, as the latter made a turn.

IRS Says Aviatrix Owes Tax On Plane

The Internal Revenue Service claims Mrs. Mock of suburban Bexley owes $5,800 in income tax on the plane the Cessna Company gave her after her record - breaking flight in 1964. She was the first woman to fly solo around the world.

If she has to pay the tax, Mrs. Mock says she will have to sell the plane.

The plane should be exempt from tax, she claims, because it was an award for civic achievement.

Hadley Awaits Barber Meeting

Board Asks Bids On Nov. 5 Ballots

The Columbiana County Election Board today mailed to county job printers the specifications for its ballot requirements for the Nov. 5 general election.

The board said it expects to open bids on the ballots Tuesday, Aug. 13, at 1 p.m.

Nine special questions and issues already have been filed for the November balloting and at least eight more presently are anticipated, based on reports from subdivisions, the board said.

Two statewide constitutional amendments also are anticipated. They would call for $759 million capital improvements bond issue and provide for a so-called "homestead tax exemption" for elderly Ohioans.

Mishap Hurts Man, Woman

A Westfield man and a Pleasant Heights woman were taken to City Hospital with injuries suffered when their cars collided Thursday on Bradshaw Ave. about 80 feet east of Ravine St., police reported.

The crash involved a 1966 four-door sedan driven by Paul A. Preston, 24, of MC 19, Westfield, and a 1962 four-door station wagon operated by Eileen V. Horner, 42, of 1756 Dakota Ave. Mrs. Horner suffered a fractured rib and Preston injuries to the left knee.

Preston told officers he was driving east on Bradshaw when the woman suddenly pulled out from the curb in front of him. Because of oncoming traffic, he was unable to avoid a collision, he said.

The woman said she looked for oncoming traffic before pulling from the curb and saw nothing. She said she was leaving an auto parts store and intended to cross the street to a super-market.

Frank E. Irving, 59, of 1209 Jennings Ave. was charged with driving while under the influence of alcohol after his auto hit a parked car Thursday at 9:58 p.m. in the 800 block of Avondale St., officers said.

Police said Irving's northbound 1968 four - door sedan hit a parked 1964 model car owned by Glen W. Huggins of 801 Avondale St.

Pickets Limited By Court Order

LISBON — The Ohio Edison Co. has obtained a Common Pleas Court order enjoining the Utility Workers Union of America Local 118 (AFL-CIO) "from interfering with or obstructing the business and services of the utility" at its Salem plant.

Federal Funds Set For New Dormitory

CINCINNATI (AP) — Federal funds of $2 million have been approved for construction of a 26-story dormitory at the University of Cincinnati and school officials say building will begin hopefully by September.

Estimated cost of the structure is $10 million, with the Federal Housing Administration furnishing $2 million and UC financing $8 million.

Worker Dies Near Beaver

A 50-year-old Pittsburgh construction worker was crushed to death Thursday afternoon when a large tractor rolled over him on the site of a sewer line installation in Chippewa Township, Beaver County.

John Scull, an employe of the H. J. Schneider Co., died of multiple fractures in the mishap on Pine Grove Rd.

Witnesses said he was riding on the back of the tractor which was ascending a steep slope. When the operator changed gears and attempted to brake the rig, it slipped backward and passed over Scull.

Cincinnati Hit By Strong Storm

CINCINNATI (AP)—A severe thunderstorm accompanied by high winds hit the Cincinnati area Thursday night, felling trees and knocking out power in one large residential section for more than three hours.

Almost an inch was dumped over the city within an hour.

Much of the Mount Airy section was blacked out shortly after the storm moved into the area at 8:32 p. m., and utilities repairmen were still at work at 11:30 p. m.

Residents of the Finneytown area just north of the city reported seeing a funnel cloud shortly before the storm hit, but weathermen said the phenomenon was a "roll" cloud—formed by cold air buildups ahead of the storm.

Several trees were reported knocked down by accompanying winds, but no injuries were reported.

Midland Lions Hold Meeting At Pavilion

Paul McGeehan was in charge of the social program during a meeting of the Midland Lions Club Thursday night at the club pavilion. Lester Trainer, president, was in charge. Twenty-four attended.

The next meeting will be Aug. 1 at the pavilion, with Lou Glumac program chairman, assisted by Wilbert Bassinger, William Orr and Morey Silverman.

WORLD ALMANAC FACTS

Thomas Gresham, master of the mint for Queen Elizabeth I, is credited with the law that "cheap money drives out dear." Gresham's law is at work today as new silverless U.S. coins freely circulate while older and more valuable silver coins are hoarded. Actually, Oresme and Copernicus first formulated the law, but H. MacLeod, in 1857, popularized the misconception that Gresham had said it first.

Grange Election Set For Sept. 5

The Hookstown Grange will elect officers Sept. 5 at the Grange Hall, it was announced at a meeting Thursday night.

A thank - you letter was read from the Hancock County Children's Home for Easter baskets presented by the grange.

A hayride and cookout for Beaver County Grange youths will be held Aug. 14.

The Hanover - Greene Township Sewing Club will hold a roundup Friday at the hall to judge sewing projects. Winners will take part in county competition.

The next grange meeting will be Aug. 1.

City Motorist Jailed For Monaca Citations

Barry Ours, 19, of 3rd St. is in Beaver County Jail at Beaver in lieu of $150 in fines on traffic charges filed by police at Monaca.

Ours was cited in June for lack of a driver's license and for failure to have an owner's card. He later was arrested on a warrant and fined.

Woman Hurt In Collision

A Wellsville woman driver was injured Thursday afternoon when her car was struck by a pickup truck on Route 39, the Ohio Highway Patrol at Lisbon reported. Two other accidents were investigated yesterday by officers.

Roberta R. Wilks, 46, of Wellsville RD 1 was treated at City Hospital for a neck injury and bruises of the arms after the collision on Route 39 about 6½ miles west of Wellsville at 12:30 p. m.

Officers said she was headed west and stopped for approaching traffic in preparation for making a left turn when her 1963 convertible was struck from the rear by the truck operated by Edwin Downard, 65, of Wellsville RD 1.

Officers said she was headed west and made a left turn onto Depot Rd., lost control and went off the road, hitting the guardrail, then went across the highway and off the east side, going over an embankment and hitting the guy wire.

Minor damage resulted in a collision on Route 154 about a mile east of Lisbon yesterday.

Earl R. Barnhouse, 34, of Logstown Rd., Lisbon, driving a tractor trailer rig, attempted to pass an auto operated by Stephen Belaney, 19, of 754 E. Lincoln Way, Lisbon, as the latter made a turn.

IRS Says Aviatrix Owes Tax On Plane

The Internal Revenue Service claims Mrs. Mock of suburban Bexley owes $5,800 in income tax on the plane the Cessna Company gave her after her record - breaking flight in 1964. She was the first woman to fly solo around the world.

If she has to pay the tax, Mrs. Mock says she will have to sell the plane.

The plane should be exempt from tax, she claims, because it was an award for civic achievement.

Hadley Awaits Barber Meeting

Emerson Hadley, operator of Hadley's Date Line Barber Shop at 407 Washington St., will leave Tuesday for Miami to attend, as a delegate, the Journeymen Barbers International Union convention, which will continue through July 29.

Hadley, who has been a barber for about 40 years, is secretary - treasurer of the East Liverpool barbers' Local 343.

A primary discussion during the convention will concern handling of a $13 million pension fund which has been in effect since 1966.

Board Asks Bids On Nov. 5 Ballots

The Columbiana County Election Board today mailed to county job printers the specifications for its ballot requirements for the Nov. 5 general election.

The board said it expects to open bids on the ballots Tuesday, Aug. 13, at 1 p.m.

Nine special questions and issues already have been filed for the November balloting and at least eight more presently are anticipated, based on reports from subdivisions, the board said.

Two statewide constitutional amendments also are anticipated. They would call for $759 million capital improvements bond issue and provide for a so-called "homestead tax exemption" for elderly Ohioans.

Support For Czechoslovakia

Behind the scenes there must have been encouragement for Czechoslovakia in its current bid for a way of life free of the shackles of orthodox communism.

But there has been almost no out-in-the-open support for the regime of Alexander Dubcek, Czechoslovakian Communist party leader.

Suddenly this has changed and that support has surfaced.

Since the Soviet Union and its allies in this "battle" with the Czech "protester" have continued to put on the pressure to make the Czech leaders conform to the orthodox ideology, Mr. Dubcek has called for moral support from other Communist leaders believed sympathetic to his position.

AND APPARENTLY the support will be forthcoming. President Tito of Yugoslavia and Romanian Communist party leader Nicolae Ceausescu are expected to go to Prague as is Waldeck Rochet, French Communist leader. Gian-Carlo Pajetta of the Italian Communist politburo also may make the trip.

All of these men are reported sympathetic to the Czech cause which is the "social democratization" of the nation.

The United States, which in view of its history, might be expected to support any nation struggling for freedom denied by a foreign power, has been relatively quiet.

It apparently has limited its moral support to a notice to the Russians that if the Soviet Union intervenes with arms in Cechshoslovakia, prospects for improved U.S.-Soviet relations will be endangered.

Russia, faced with a situation which conceivably could rip her Communist empire right up the middle could care less whether her actions damage relations with this country — relations which have been more than strained for years.

Up to this point at least, the European Reds' defiance of Moscow is an internal, family affair. So far as we know the United States has not been "invited in."

UNCLE SAM, for more reasons than one, can hardly act in Czechoslovakia as Russia did in Cuba although the temptation to do so, if asked, would be considerable.

It certainly would be to the interest of the United States to have a friendly nation bordering the Soviet Union

A democratied Communist nation, it seems to us, would be far less likely to wage cold war and threaten hot war against the United States than the Communist nations which advocate orthodox communism as the wave of the future and impose it on every country they can.

County Tax Dilemma

Columbiana County residents are asking themselves about the proposed real estate transfer tax which the Commissioners are contemplating for additional county revenue.

The realtors have taken it upon themselves to oppose the tax, claiming it discriminates against the property seller for the benefit of the general population.

The Commissioners say there is a clear need for money to meet just the increased mandatory expenditures required of the county's financial resources, along with higher operating costs and additional burdens of county government.

The average householder sees himself as a victim in the taxation structure which involves not just federal, state and city government, but county, township, school district and special districts such as sewer, fire and water.

All these "government" operations must have finances to properly serve constituents, and taxpayers may wail and gripe and fume, but the quality of service depends upon the tax investment.

The Lisbon government is in real need of funds to achieve the level of operations which a progressive and developing county has to maintain.

If two of the Commissioners did not have to seek re-election in the fall, it is possible they might have sought a more broad-based tax of those from which they had to select. In the minds of the commissioners, it appeared the 3-mill transfer tax was the most suitable for their purposes.

Should they change their minds, or if their minds are changed for them by a referendum, as suggested by the realtors, the problem of finances still remains — not just for the commissioners, but for all of us who expect to benefit from an efficient and effective county government.

"You gets what you pay for," is still the truism of democracy, and those who recognize honest and purposeful self-government cannot escape the value of cautious but willing tax

Young Confuses The Issue

The U.S. State Department says Sen. Stephen M. Young, D-Ohio, is wrong in his report that America will pay $100 million in ransom and throw in an aplolgy to get back the Pueblo and its 82-man crew from North Korea.

While the State Department is not known as a paragon of truthfulness, the delicacy of the situation makes it probably it wouldn't go out on a limb unnecessarily in this instance.

Press Officer Robert J. McCloskey said the question of ransom has not entered the negotiations picture.

It is difficult to figure out what Sen. Young has in mind. If there is no truth to his prediction, he has no business spouting off about the incident and muddying the talks.

If it should turn out he is right and he wants to support the effort, he would have been better off to let the announcement come from the State Department. Now the situation is more confused than ever.

At any rate, the American public is not likely to take kindly to a ransom proposal and an apology unless the U.S. government does another about face and admits its early denials of intrusion into North Korean waters were false.

Washington is quite capable of confusing the natives without the able assistance of Sen. Young.

Canine Crime Dissuaders

Maybe we are not using man's best friend, the dog, to his full potential when it comes to assisting us with our problems.

Arno, one of the first dogs to join the Cincinnati Police Department, has demonstrated very effectively how he and others like him can render a real service as law "enforcers."

Arno's personnel record with the police department shows he has captured 97 burglars and other felons during his career of several years with the department.

Trained principally to attack, Arno and other police dogs also have been schooled to track and search.

Arno proved himself the hero this week when he located 3-year-old Jonetta Wallace in a deep clump of weeds after she had been missing about five hours, and police and residents of the area had failed to find her.

Letters To The Editor

Complainant Criticized

This is a letter regarding the so called nightly "ruckus" at Buddy's Drive-in.

It seems that Mr. McElroy, the proprietor of the Heritage House, has filed his complaint with the City Council. May I say that in my opinion Mr. McElroy is far from being above reproach.

Not once has Mr. McElroy tried on an approach that even begins to resemble that of a reasonable man. I had always been taught that an adult was suppose to set the example for the younger generation. If Mr. McElroy is the example of the perfect adult, it's no wonder that "some" of the younger generation are going bad.

When a man his age curses at the kids at Buddy's, what kind of a reaction does he expect? I'm not upholding wrong, but there is bound to be a rebellious attitude. He is the type of individual that expects all kids to be in by 9 p.m.

It seems that no matter what the younger generation endulges in, it's wrong. It's a shame that the young generation can't buy a hamburger and coke at 12 p.m. and enjoy our short summers. Maybe the Cactus Bar would be a better location. I really doubt that!

I'm not trying to make the younger generation sound like a bunch of angels, but it is a shame when they can't even meet after a dance for a coke.

All I can say to Mr. McElroy is to set a good example and he will receive the respect he rightfully deserves as an adult and as a business proprietor.

OSU 'Stand' Rapped

This is in regards to your editorial of July 15 concerning dismissal of OSU Prof. David M. Green. The editorial is entitled, "Ohio State Takes a Stand." Then you state that the "stand" is against those who choose to express a personal belief in an unlawful manner.

Green did unquestionably break a law when he burned his draft card. But OSU's trustees have now acted as both a judge and jury. They judged him guilty and pronounced sentence without letting him present his side of the story.

Now if we keep control of our emotions, we must also remember that Green was expressing a personal belief of his, and that his act doesn't mean that he wasn't a fine teacher. A man is hired to teach a subject, and his own personal convictions don't have anything to do with his being a good or bad instructor. OSU trustees have made it plain that the university's instructors must teach in a manner acceptable to the trustees or else they are not wanted.

Green broke a federal law and his punishment is a matter for the FBI and a court of law. But the trustees have assumed this duty. This is why the American Association of University Professors has threatened censure.

Incidentally, the "beating of a news photographer" mentioned in the editorial consisted of the photographer being bumped against a wall when he refused to identify himself at a fraternity meeting which Green was addressing.

VICTOR RIESEL

Global Strike Is Possible

ROME — Not all the vital news of this continent is made on riotous streets. Not all of it crashes into overnight headlines.

Some of it—just as revolutionary—is made at quiet unreported conferences such as the parley up in Turin recently, at which Walter Reuther's machine gun-tongued oratory stirred hundreds of powerful union chiefs from nations across the world.

Victor Riesel

The embattled red-haired auto union president, amid cheers and applause, developed the first concept of a global strike.

They loved him in that Italian auto manufacturing center when he spoke of the swiftly approaching hour of a single strike crippling a single industry all along the line from Britain to Sweden to Germany to Japan to Australia to Argentina to Mahwah, N.J., and of course, Detroit.

This then could bring pressure on Ford, General Motors, Chrysler, Volkswagen, Daimler-Benz, Fiat, Rootes and other car manufacturers, if one metalworkers" union in one country has a collective bargaining dispute with one auto firm in any of 15 nations of the free world.

All this could be coordinated by an international labor network virtually never discussed, except by insiders, in the U.S. its official name is the World Automotive Company Councils, made up of unions in the automobile production industry on all continents.

THIS IS A UNION force sired by Reuther and the equally little-known but massive 6 million-member International Metalworkers' Federation (IMF) headquartered in Geneva. There, too, are the union's company councils, one for Ford, another for General Motors, another for the Chrysler-Fiat-Simca-Rootes combine, another for Volkswagen and Daimler-Benz, etc.

The IMF's automotive division is headed by Reuther. In mid-May, right after the United Auto Workers were suspended from the AFL-CIO, Reuther flew to Turin for a global conference of this IMF division.

There on May 16, he talked of the future of the global coordinating campaign. The first move, he suggested, would be to attempt to force the auto companies, which have installations in many nations, to sign contracts with common expiration dates.

As interpreted by European labor leaders with whom I've been talking, this would mean coordinating the contract expirations first on this continent, from Scandinavia to Sicily. Then the drive would fan out to Africa, Latin America, Australia, across to Asia and of course to the bargaining with the big Detroit-based auto corporations.

Reuther and his world colleagues then would attempt to bargain jointly on intercontinental standards—on wages, vacations, holidays, pensions, working conditions and welfare. At one point Reuther said that even now, if they" get tough in Latin America, they" will have to deal with us" in Detroit.

THIS IS THE FIRST time in labor's history that the concept of global unionism has been projected and spelled out right down to the picket line. This will not be difficult to implement in a year or two when continents will be but two or three jet hours away.

Fact is that in tiny steps this concept already has been practiced. Leaders of the International Metalworkers have been in American picket lines. Though only a token of world solidarity, it is vital to note.

Certainly Reuther's auto union has aided other auto unions bargain as far off as Australia and Japan. His union's international department spends about $900,000 annually abroad.

The Metalworkers' Federation itself is an influential worldwide "secretariat" headed by tough idiological (Social Democratic) men. Its president is the sometimes virulently anti-U.S. critic, Otto Brenner, head of Germany's 2 million-member metalworkers.

Brenner thinks nothing of blasting American industry. At the drop of a dialectic, he accuses U.S. business of all sorts of economic crimes and has coined the word oligopolies" as a dirty name for American firms. He is entitled to his opinion and, I presume, I am to mine.

IT SEEMS TO ME it comes with ill grace from Otto Brenner to attack the industries and the nation which not only saved his people from the Third Reich, but also provided the means, with the aid of the old AFL, for the reconstruction of Germany's free trade unions.

Control of the metal trades international is of considerable importance. It is the mother organization of global units other than the World Automotive Company Councils. One sister network, launched by the IMF, is the Electronic and Electrical Division.

Active in this is Paul Jennings and his International Union of Electrical Workers. They met in The Hague last September and in Zurich this May. These division leaders also dream in terms of global strikes, and, furthermore, want their division to encompass radio, television and world communications.

It all goes unreported. But soon enough it all will come crashing through the global headlines.

DAVID LAWRENCE

A Question

A grave constitutional question has been raised before the Senate Judiciary Committee involving the propriety of a Supreme Court justic serving as an unofficial adviser to the president. Up to now it has always been assumed the doctrine of "separation of powers" meant the executive and judicial branches of the government were to be kept independent of each other.

Associate Justice Abe Fortas, who has been nominated by President Johnson to be chief justice, acknowledged to the committee that he has participated in White House policy meetings while serving as a member of the Supreme Court.

There have been a few occasions in the past where a justice of the Supreme Court has been useful in international negotiations, but there is no known precedent in which a justice has been asked to advise the president on matters of domestic policy.

IN TESTIFYING before the Senate committee, Justice Fortas said:

"It is well known that the President and I have been associated, mostly as lawyer and client, for many years. The President has confidence in my ability to analyze the situation and state the pros and cons. . . .

"The President of the United States, since I have been a justice, has done me the honor of indicating in a few instances that I could be of help and I have been asked to come to the White House to participate at times."

Justice Fortas admitted that he took part in the meetings held by the President during last summer's rioting in Detroit. Mr. Fortas said he did not write the President's statement ordering federal troops to the Michigan City but that he did see it in advance.

When Sen. James Eastland, D-Miss., specifically asked Justice Fortas whether he had approved the President's message beforehand, Mr. Fortas said that he wasn't asked for any approval. But the impression was given that he acquiesced in the contents of the message. He referred to the incident as occurring at a "time of national crisis."

It will be recalled, however, that Gov. George Romney of Michigan tangled with the White House when the riots broke out. He tried to get federal troops sent promptly, but the President delayed his reply for several hours.

There is still a controversy as to how much damage was done in Detroit during the period between the time Gov. Romney telephoned the White House and the President's response later stipulating that the governor must put his request in writing.

Sen. Sam J. Ervin, Jr., D-N.C., asked Justice Fortas if he might have to disqualify himself from consideration of certain legal cases which could develop in the future as a consequence of the President's decision to send troops to Detroit. Mr. Fortas declared it was "difficult" for him to imagine such a thing occurring, but that if the problem arose he would consider whether he should disqualify himself from acting in such a case.

Unquestionably there will be debate in the Senate as to the role that Justice Fortas has played as an informal or unofficial adviser to the President while sitting on the bench.

Disputes have occurred when justices have made public speeches commenting on governmental problems. Many of the justices have felt that they have the right to voice their views outside the court on public questions. Some justices have been intimate friends of presidents. The late Chief Justice Fred Vinson was a close friend of President Truman, and joined him on vacation trips.

A NUMBER OF JUSTICES over the years have visited with and talked with presidents in an informal manner, but there has rarely been any revelation that their advice has been sought on questions of domestic policy.

Certainly in the discussion in the Senate Judiciary Committee and the debate that will ensue in the Senate, the proper role of a Supreme Court justice in his relations with a president of the United States is likely to be fully explored.

Present and future justices of the Supreme Court may be warned that they cannot serve on the bench and act as personal advisers to a chief executive without running into difficulties with Congress over the principle of the "separation of powers" embodied in the Constitution.

Young Confuses The Issue

The U.S. State Department says Sen. Stephen M. Young, D-Ohio, is wrong in his report that America will pay $100 million in ransom and throw in an aplolgy to get back the Pueblo and its 82-man crew from North Korea.

While the State Department is not known as a paragon of truthfulness, the delicacy of the situation makes it probably it wouldn't go out on a limb unnecessarily in this instance.

Press Officer Robert J. McCloskey said the question of ransom has not entered the negotiations picture.

It is difficult to figure out what Sen. Young has in mind. If there is no truth to his prediction, he has no business spouting off about the incident and muddying the talks.

If it should turn out he is right and he wants to support the effort, he would have been better off to let the announcement come from the State Department. Now the situation is more confused than ever.

At any rate, the American public is not likely to take kindly to a ransom proposal and an apology unless the U.S. government does another about face and admits its early denials of intrusion into North Korean waters were false.

Washington is quite capable of confusing the natives without the able assistance of Sen. Young.

Canine Crime Dissuaders

Maybe we are not using man's best friend, the dog, to his full potential when it comes to assisting us with our problems.

Arno, one of the first dogs to join the Cincinnati Police Department, has demonstrated very effectively how he and others like him can render a real service as law "enforcers."

Arno's personnel record with the police department shows he has captured 97 burglars and other felons during his career of several years with the department.

Trained principally to attack, Arno and other police dogs also have been schooled to track and search.

Arno proved himself the hero this week when he located 3-year-old Jonetta Wallace in a deep clump of weeds after she had been missing about five hours, and police and residents of the area had failed to find her.

Letters To The Editor

Complainant Criticized

This is a letter regarding the so called nightly "ruckus" at Buddy's Drive-in.

It seems that Mr. McElroy, the proprietor of the Heritage House, has filed his complaint with the City Council. May I say that in my opinion Mr. McElroy is far from being above reproach.

Not once has Mr. McElroy tried on an approach that even begins to resemble that of a reasonable man. I had always been taught that an adult was suppose to set the example for the younger generation. If Mr. McElroy is the example of the perfect adult, it's no wonder that "some" of the younger generation are going bad.

When a man his age curses at the kids at Buddy's, what kind of a reaction does he expect? I'm not upholding wrong, but there is bound to be a rebellious attitude. He is the type of individual that expects all kids to be in by 9 p.m.

It seems that no matter what the younger generation endulges in, it's wrong. It's a shame that the young generation can't buy a hamburger and coke at 12 p.m. and enjoy our short summers. Maybe the Cactus Bar would be a better location. I really doubt that!

I'm not trying to make the younger generation sound like a bunch of angels, but it is a shame when they can't even meet after a dance for a coke.

All I can say to Mr. McElroy is to set a good example and he will receive the respect he rightfully deserves as an adult and as a business proprietor.

OSU 'Stand' Rapped

This is in regards to your editorial of July 15 concerning dismissal of OSU Prof. David M. Green. The editorial is entitled, "Ohio State Takes a Stand." Then you state that the "stand" is against those who choose to express a personal belief in an unlawful manner.

Green did unquestionably break a law when he burned his draft card. But OSU's trustees have now acted as both a judge and jury. They judged him guilty and pronounced sentence without letting him present his side of the story.

Now if we keep control of our emotions, we must also remember that Green was expressing a personal belief of his, and that his act doesn't mean that he wasn't a fine teacher. A man is hired to teach a subject, and his own personal convictions don't have anything to do with his being a good or bad instructor. OSU trustees have made it plain that the university's instructors must teach in a manner acceptable to the trustees or else they are not wanted.

Green broke a federal law and his punishment is a matter for the FBI and a court of law. But the trustees have assumed this duty. This is why the American Association of University Professors has threatened censure.

Incidentally, the "beating of a news photographer" mentioned in the editorial consisted of the photographer being bumped against a wall when he refused to identify himself at a fraternity meeting which Green was addressing.

VICTOR RIESEL

Global Strike Is Possible

ROME — Not all the vital news of this continent is made on riotous streets. Not all of it crashes into overnight headlines.

Some of it—just as revolutionary—is made at quiet unreported conferences such as the parley up in Turin recently, at which Walter Reuther's machine gun-tongued oratory stirred hundreds of powerful union chiefs from nations across the world.

Victor Riesel

The embattled red-haired auto union president, amid cheers and applause, developed the first concept of a global strike.

They loved him in that Italian auto manufacturing center when he spoke of the swiftly approaching hour of a single strike crippling a single industry all along the line from Britain to Sweden to Germany to Japan to Australia to Argentina to Mahwah, N.J., and of course, Detroit.

This then could bring pressure on Ford, General Motors, Chrysler, Volkswagen, Daimler-Benz, Fiat, Rootes and other car manufacturers, if one metalworkers" union in one country has a collective bargaining dispute with one auto firm in any of 15 nations of the free world.

All this could be coordinated by an international labor network virtually never discussed, except by insiders, in the U.S. its official name is the World Automotive Company Councils, made up of unions in the automobile production industry on all continents.

THIS IS A UNION force sired by Reuther and the equally little-known but massive 6 million-member International Metalworkers' Federation (IMF) headquartered in Geneva. There, too, are the union's company councils, one for Ford, another for General Motors, another for the Chrysler-Fiat-Simca-Rootes combine, another for Volkswagen and Daimler-Benz, etc.

The IMF's automotive division is headed by Reuther. In mid-May, right after the United Auto Workers were suspended from the AFL-CIO, Reuther flew to Turin for a global conference of this IMF division.

There on May 16, he talked of the future of the global coordinating campaign. The first move, he suggested, would be to attempt to force the auto companies, which have installations in many nations, to sign contracts with common expiration dates.

As interpreted by European labor leaders with whom I've been talking, this would mean coordinating the contract expirations first on this continent, from Scandinavia to Sicily. Then the drive would fan out to Africa, Latin America, Australia, across to Asia and of course to the bargaining with the big Detroit-based auto corporations.

Reuther and his world colleagues then would attempt to bargain jointly on intercontinental standards—on wages, vacations, holidays, pensions, working conditions and welfare. At one point Reuther said that even now, if they" get tough in Latin America, they" will have to deal with us" in Detroit.

THIS IS THE FIRST time in labor's history that the concept of global unionism has been projected and spelled out right down to the picket line. This will not be difficult to implement in a year or two when continents will be but two or three jet hours away.

Fact is that in tiny steps this concept already has been practiced. Leaders of the International Metalworkers have been in American picket lines. Though only a token of world solidarity, it is vital to note.

Certainly Reuther's auto union has aided other auto unions bargain as far off as Australia and Japan. His union's international department spends about $900,000 annually abroad.

The Metalworkers' Federation itself is an influential worldwide "secretariat" headed by tough idiological (Social Democratic) men. Its president is the sometimes virulently anti-U.S. critic, Otto Brenner, head of Germany's 2 million-member metalworkers.

Brenner thinks nothing of blasting American industry. At the drop of a dialectic, he accuses U.S. business of all sorts of economic crimes and has coined the word oligopolies" as a dirty name for American firms. He is entitled to his opinion and, I presume, I am to mine.

IT SEEMS TO ME it comes with ill grace from Otto Brenner to attack the industries and the nation which not only saved his people from the Third Reich, but also provided the means, with the aid of the old AFL, for the reconstruction of Germany's free trade unions.

Control of the metal trades international is of considerable importance. It is the mother organization of global units other than the World Automotive Company Councils. One sister network, launched by the IMF, is the Electronic and Electrical Division.

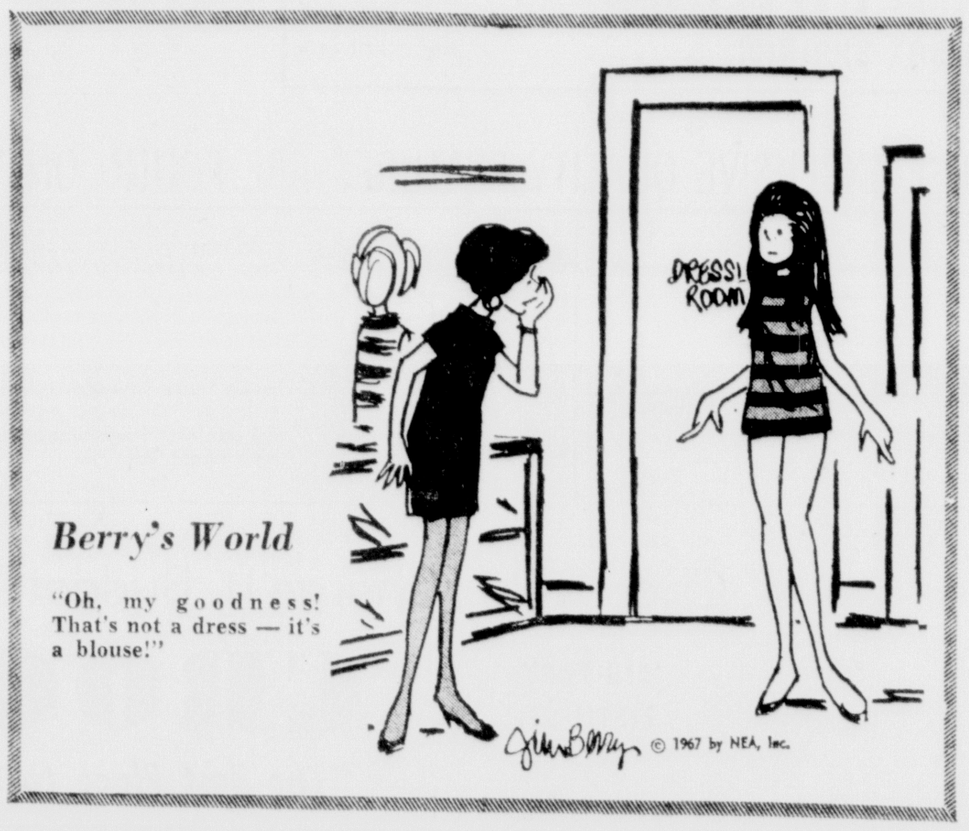

Active in this is Paul Jennings and his International Union of Electrical Workers. They met in The Hague last September and in Zurich this May. These division leaders also dream in terms of global strikes, and, furthermore, want their division to encompass radio, television and world communications.

It all goes unreported. But soon enough it all will come crashing through the global headlines.

DAVID LAWRENCE

A Question

A grave constitutional question has been raised before the Senate Judiciary Committee involving the propriety of a Supreme Court justic serving as an unofficial adviser to the president. Up to now it has always been assumed the doctrine of "separation of powers" meant the executive and judicial branches of the government were to be kept independent of each other.

Associate Justice Abe Fortas, who has been nominated by President Johnson to be chief justice, acknowledged to the committee that he has participated in White House policy meetings while serving as a member of the Supreme Court.

There have been a few occasions in the past where a justice of the Supreme Court has been useful in international negotiations, but there is no known precedent in which a justice has been asked to advise the president on matters of domestic policy.

IN TESTIFYING before the Senate committee, Justice Fortas said:

"It is well known that the President and I have been associated, mostly as lawyer and client, for many years. The President has confidence in my ability to analyze the situation and state the pros and cons. . . .

"The President of the United States, since I have been a justice, has done me the honor of indicating in a few instances that I could be of help and I have been asked to come to the White House to participate at times."

Justice Fortas admitted that he took part in the meetings held by the President during last summer's rioting in Detroit. Mr. Fortas said he did not write the President's statement ordering federal troops to the Michigan City but that he did see it in advance.

When Sen. James Eastland, D-Miss., specifically asked Justice Fortas whether he had approved the President's message beforehand, Mr. Fortas said that he wasn't asked for any approval. But the impression was given that he acquiesced in the contents of the message. He referred to the incident as occurring at a "time of national crisis."

It will be recalled, however, that Gov. George Romney of Michigan tangled with the White House when the riots broke out. He tried to get federal troops sent promptly, but the President delayed his reply for several hours.

There is still a controversy as to how much damage was done in Detroit during the period between the time Gov. Romney telephoned the White House and the President's response later stipulating that the governor must put his request in writing.

Sen. Sam J. Ervin, Jr., D-N.C., asked Justice Fortas if he might have to disqualify himself from consideration of certain legal cases which could develop in the future as a consequence of the President's decision to send troops to Detroit. Mr. Fortas declared it was "difficult" for him to imagine such a thing occurring, but that if the problem arose he would consider whether he should disqualify himself from acting in such a case.

Unquestionably there will be debate in the Senate as to the role that Justice Fortas has played as an informal or unofficial adviser to the President while sitting on the bench.

Disputes have occurred when justices have made public speeches commenting on governmental problems. Many of the justices have felt that they have the right to voice their views outside the court on public questions. Some justices have been intimate friends of presidents. The late Chief Justice Fred Vinson was a close friend of President Truman, and joined him on vacation trips.

A NUMBER OF JUSTICES over the years have visited with and talked with presidents in an informal manner, but there has rarely been any revelation that their advice has been sought on questions of domestic policy.

Certainly in the discussion in the Senate Judiciary Committee and the debate that will ensue in the Senate, the proper role of a Supreme Court justice in his relations with a president of the United States is likely to be fully explored.

Present and future justices of the Supreme Court may be warned that they cannot serve on the bench and act as personal advisers to a chief executive without running into difficulties with Congress over the principle of the "separation of powers" embodied in the Constitution.

Ceremonies Set For New Center

SALINEVILLE — A dedication ceremony and "open house" are scheduled Aug. 8 from 7 to 9 p.m. at the new Southern Community Center at 100 E. Main St.

Displays of arts and craft sewing will be held and refreshments will be served by members of the cooking classes.

The dedication and open house were scheduled when the board of directors met Tuesday night in the center's recreation room. The Rev. Monty May, first vice chairman, presided.

THE BOARD issued a general invitation to parents of youths attending classes, as well as residents of Salineville and nearby communities.

Mrs. Anne E. Lecroy, summer youth coordinator, explained how federal, state, county and local governments work together in operation of community centers.

She also announced that the center needs books for its library, materials for the craft, art and sewing classes, typewriters, desks and other items. Persons wishing to make donations may contact Mrs. Lecroy at 352 E. 3rd St., Salem, the Community Action Agency at Lisbon or the center at Salineville.

A tentative schedule was discussed for the new fiscal year. Classes were suggested in adult sewing and art; men's crafts, chess and student instruction in craft art and sewing. There would be three sessions consisting of 12 weeks per session.

THE BOARD suggested that agencies such as the Red Cross, Soldiers and Sailors Relief Commission, welfare department and Social Security Agency contact the center to arrange schedules on which their representatives could visit the center regularly to assist residents of the area.

The board also announced formation of a "Golden Age" club is being considered for senior citizens. It said the center is available for use through the day by civic groups and clubs. A course in babysitting is being planned if sufficient interest is shown. The board's next meeting will be Tuesday at 7:30 p.m.

Judge Penalizes 11 Area Drivers In Traffic Cases

Six East Liverpool area motorists were among 11 district drivers penalized at hearings Thursday before County Judge Barry Dickson at East Palestine.

Fined were Gaylon C. Parker of 118 Blackmore St., $10 and costs, and Gertrude M. Campbell of Glenmoor, $15 and costs, both for failure to yield the right of way.

Betty J. Linville of Valley Rd., $10 and costs, and John O. Gloeckner of Box 406, $15 and costs, both for traffic light violations; Dale Rice of 1845 Dakota Ave., $10 and costs for an unsafe vehicle, and Robert W. Moore of 1717 Holliday St., $35 and costs for reckless operation.

District drivers fined were Carl F. Buhn Jr. of 1141 Bacon Ave., East Palestine, $25 and costs for speeding; Charles O. Seevers of Lisbon RD 2, $5 and costs, no tail light; Joseph Stanley of Negley, $30 and costs for improper passing, and Richard Kiehl of New Waterford RD 1, $10 and costs, with the fine suspended, for failure to display a slow moving vehicle emblem.

Calvin C. Wagner of Lisbon RD 3 forfeited a $20 bond for speeding.

In Cuban Institute

Leftist Students Receive Revolutionary Training

HAVANA (AP) — Fidel Castro's government is giving revolutionary training to scores of leftist students from abroad at a special institute tucked away in the hills of Pinar Del Rio Province.

The majority of the students are French. There are also more than 70 Swedes reported enrolled, two or three from the United States and a scattering from Vietnam, England, Norway, Denmark and West Germany.

The students deny reports from France that they are being taught guerrilla tactics for use in the cities.

"We are studying the Cuban revolution and working to help the campesinos (peasants)," said a French student.

"I guess you could describe the seminars as political training," said a Dane.

From conversations with some of the students and others who have visited the institute, those attending apparently agree with Cuba's advocacy of armed struggle to make social revolution. And most apparently intend to try to carry out such a policy when they return home.

The students put in half of their working day on special agricultural projects and attend seminars the other half. About 400 took part in the six-week course which just ended. About a hundred new students are expected next week, but some of the old ones are staying on for a second course.

The institute is called the Fifth of May Camp, honoring the birth date of Karl Marx. It is near the village of Cayajobos, about 45 miles southwest of Havana.

A big sign saying welcome in English, French and Spanish—the three languages used in the seminars—points out the new road leading to the camp.

Also honored was 73-year-old Charles E. Booth of Huntington, a past commander of the state Legionnaires. He was presented the organization's Distinguished Service Medal.

In Cuban Institute

Leftist Students Receive Revolutionary Training

HAVANA (AP) — Fidel Castro's government is giving revolutionary training to scores of leftist students from abroad at a special institute tucked away in the hills of Pinar Del Rio Province.

The majority of the students are French. There are also more than 70 Swedes reported enrolled, two or three from the United States and a scattering from Vietnam, England, Norway, Denmark and West Germany.

The students deny reports from France that they are being taught guerrilla tactics for use in the cities.

"We are studying the Cuban revolution and working to help the campesinos (peasants)," said a French student.

"I guess you could describe the seminars as political training," said a Dane.

From conversations with some of the students and others who have visited the institute, those attending apparently agree with Cuba's advocacy of armed struggle to make social revolution. And most apparently intend to try to carry out such a policy when they return home.

The students put in half of their working day on special agricultural projects and attend seminars the other half. About 400 took part in the six-week course which just ended. About a hundred new students are expected next week, but some of the old ones are staying on for a second course.

The institute is called the Fifth of May Camp, honoring the birth date of Karl Marx. It is near the village of Cayajobos, about 45 miles southwest of Havana.

A big sign saying welcome in English, French and Spanish—the three languages used in the seminars—points out the new road leading to the camp.

Cotten Finds Acting A Joy

A great many good actors aren't seen on TV since the medium was taken over by old movies and series with the same characters each week. One of these is Joseph Cotten.

Hal Humphrey

Except for a role in a "Cimarron Strip" last season, Cotten hasn't done any TV for three years. Most of this time he's been in London, Spain and Italy doing movies.

This coming season you'll see him on TV as a surgeon in an "Ironside" episode and as a German colonel in East Berlin for a two-part "It Takes a Thief," a role he just finished filming at Universal in Hollywood.

"AND I DO IT with a slight German accent," Cotten says, rather proudly. "I really have no accents. This one I brushed up on while on the plane from London. They played a Berlitz tape of German for half an hour on the closed-circuit audio, which I listened to instead of watching the movie."

Cotten spent a good part of his career getting rid of his Virginia-born accent. He rather enviously points out that his wife, actress Patricia Medina, speaks Spanish, French and Italian.

"But I seem to even be losing my English and will probably wind up with no language at all," he adds.

HE'LL SOON be going to London to guest in an episode of "Journey to the Unknown," a new TV series scheduled for ABC this fall, but being filmed in England by 20th Century-Fox.

Cotten and his wife try to plan their acting assignments to put them in the same locale. He believes married people should be together, even if they are actors. Both have missed their home in Pacific Palisades the past few years.

"I suppose actors have always been gypsies, except for that 20 years or so when the big Hollywood studios were operating and had all those actors under contract and did all their movies here," Cotten says.

AS A character member of Orson Welles' old Mercury Theater group, Cotten spent several years in New York on the stage and in radio. One of his first visits to Hollywood was when Welles called him to be in his movie "Citizen Kane," the controversial film about publisher William Randolph Hearst.

He went back to New York afterward to rejoin Katherine Hepburn for the road tour of "Philadelphia Story," which they'd done on Broadway. After that tour he was cast in another Hollywood movie, "Lydia," with Merle Oberon. This led to more movies and a contract with David O. Selznick.

Following a return to Broadway in "Sabrina Fair" in 1953, Cotten made his TV debut in an Evelyn Waugh story, "The High Green Wall," and later did many TV shows, including a series which he hosted and did some roles in. It was called "On Trial."

A FEW years ago Cotten succumbed to doing a series of TV commercials. He says the money was just too good and that it would have been disrespectful to turn it down.

"As far as the business is concerned, it was not detrimental to my career. In fact, I was busier when the commercials were on the air than before, and you get some independence from it in that the money allows you to be a bit more choosy when it comes to the junk you're offered in acting jobs," Cotten maintains.

There's little doubt, one suspects, however, that almost any actor would rather be acting than selling. Unfortunately, in TV today there are more opportunities to sell merchandise than to act.

COTTEN is no stranger to selling. He sold paint in Brooklyn when he found no producers' doors open to him during his early tries to be an actor in New York. When this petered out, he went to Miami and sold advertising for the Miami Herald. In his spare time he joined a little theater group from the University of Miami.

When he returned to New York it was with a letter of introduction to Burns Mantle, the critic, and this led to a job as understudy and assistant stage manager for David Belasco.

Progress Report Given On Play As Thespians Meet

The play, written by Summer Arthur Long, is being directed by Tom Henthorn. A three-act comedy with a cast of nine, it will be presented in mid-August at the theater.

Plans were advanced for the first anniversary of the group in October. Rosemary Morris and Lida Smith are co-chairmen of the committee in charge.

James Graham, president, said furniture is needed for rehearsals as well as the play. Any donations of chairs, lamps, sofas or other articles may be made by contacting Miss Smith of 133 Kountz Ave., Wellsville.

Graham also stressed the need for help in publicity, makeup, costuming and other areas of the production. Anyone interested in any phase of the program is invited to attend the next meeting Tuesday at 7:30 p.m. in the theater.

A rehearsal of the play followed. The cast will rehearse again tonight at 7 in the theater, Henthorn said.

Police Check Looting Of Six Parked Autos

Thieves broke into six parked cars in East Liverpool overnight, police reported.

The autos of Robert Spencer and John Pruitt, both of Glen Rose, Tex., were broken into between midnight and 6:35 a.m. while parked on a lot at the rear of the Heritage House Motel on E. 3rd St. A stereo tape player and four tapes were taken from Spencer's car. Nothing was missing from Pruitt's car.

W. S. Kaufman of Elkins, W. Va., also reported his car was entered at the Heritage House and assorted tools, a transistor radio and a light were taken.

Doris J. Work of 527 Mulberry St. reported a thief who broke into her car overnight on Mulberry St. tore up the titles to a boat and a motor. Edward Sisco of Rochester told police two blankets were stolen from his auto early today on E. 6th St. James K. Shileds of 513 Mulberry St. told officers a thief vandalized the interior of his car overnight and tore up the registration papers.

2 Men Plead Innocent To Charge Of Assault

William Landy of 212 Baum St. and Kenneth Adkins of 2216 Crawford Ave., charged with assault and battery in connection with the beating of an elderly Grimms Bridge man, pleaded not guilty at a preliminary hearing Thursday before County Judge Barry Dickson at East Palestine.

They were returned to the Columbiana County Jail at Lisbon under $100 bond. Their next hearing was set for July 29. They were cited after an incident July 12 in which Carl Young of Grimms Bridge was beaten.

Alaskan Oil Find Lauded As 'Economy Stabilizer'

Associated Press Writer

JUNEAU, Alaska (AP) — Gov. Walter J. Hickel sees the discovery of oil in Alaska's Arctic region as a key unlocking the state's vast potential and a stabilizer of its economy.

"It's tremendous," the governor kept saying Thursday after hearing that reserves estimated by oil experts at 5 to 10 billion barrels had been found in the Prudhoe Bay area along Alaska's Arctic coast.

The U.S. Navy's Petroleum Reserve No. 4 lies to the west of the Atlantic Richfield-Humble discovery, in an area where the temperature merely toys with the freezing point—even during the long summer days when the Arctic sun never gets below the horizon.

Degolyer and MacNaughton, a Dallas oil consulting firm, said the new discovery has the potential of developing into one of the world's largest fields.

Located on a 90,000-acre block of federally leased land, the new discovery apparently confirms what petroleum geologists have long thought, that the Arctic Slope is a vast storehouse of oil and gas.

Gov. Hickel feels the oil income from the huge federal holdings on the north slope could be used to meet native demands for $500 million to drop claims blocking the state's efforts to select the 103 million acres promised by the statehood act.

He also sees it as possibly leading to the elimination of state income taxes, which brought in $31 million in the last fiscal year.

Alaska, which ranks 10th among the 32 oil producing states, received direct income from oil and gas production taxes, lease bonuses, royalties and rentals of over $40 million for the fiscal year ending June 30. The state's general fund budget for the year was $104 million.

The governor listed as his first priority the extension of the federally owned Alaska railroad from its northern terminus at Fairbanks the remaining 400 miles to the north coast.

Besides relieving the oil industry of the immediate need of building a $400 million pipeline to get the oil to ice-free tide-water, the railroad, he said, would provide a "two-way haul" to open up thousands of square miles of unexplored wilderness.

"We haven't even begun to top the mineral potential up there," Hickel said.

Probation Action Denied

Appeal Filed For Cusick In Auto Death Conviction

Robert E. Cusick Jr., 30, of West Point has appealed to the Seventh District Court of Appeals from his conviction on a traffic manslaughter charge Wednesday in Common Pleas Court at Lisbon.

He waived his right to file a motion for a new trial Wednesday afternoon and asked for investigation for probation.

Judge Raymond S. Buzzard overruled the request and sentenced him to 1 to 20 years in Ohio State Penitentiary and ordered his driver's license revoked for three years.

Defense Counsel Lawrence Cregan of Youngstown asked the court to set a stay of execution of sentence bond pending appeal, but Judge Buzzard denied the request and turned the prisoner over to the sheriff.

Cregan got the Court of Appeal at Youngstown to set the "stay" bond and Cusick was released after a bondsman went $10,000 bail. A factory worker in Salem, Cusick is the father of five children.

A jury found Cusick responsible for the death of Paul V. Dawson, 48, formerly of 1004 St. George St. here.

Mr. Dawson was one of four men killed in a head-on crash Nov. 11 on Route 30 and the Route 45 junction near West Point. Cusick, whose brother Arnold, 19, his passenger, was one of the victims, was also indicted in connection with the deaths of Donald M. Adkins, 28, formerly of Midland Heights, driver of the other car, and his father, Albert G. Adkins, 55, formerly of 447 Virginia Ave., East Liverpool.

The indictment for Dawson's death was the first tried. Prosecuting Atty. J. Warren Bettis said he does not plan to try Cusick again until the September term of court.

Tree Planting Planned At Trash Disposal Site

Mayor George E. Willshaw and Safety - Service Director Robert E. Vodrey continued work Thursday on plans to plant trees on the city's landfill trash dump in Madison Township as the big strip-mined area is filled gradually with trash.

The two officials conferred at the site with a representative of the Ohio Department of Natural Resources, which furnishes seedlings free for such conservation and beautification work. The state representative estimated the city's needs and the types of tree required. The mayor said the first planting may be made next spring.

The airlines distance between Washington, D. C. and Ankara, Turkey, over the "top of the world," is 5,420 miles.

ACNE AND MILK HORMONES

Q. I have heard that milk and other dairy products contain a hormone that causes acne. Is this true?

A. There is no evidence that milk contains such a hormone. Acne is caused primarily by hyperactive oil glands in the skin. The glands oversecrete and become plugged, producing acne. Acne is not caused by an improper diet, although the condition, once established, may worsen with a poor diet.

OYSTERS AND "R" MONTHS

Q. What is the basis for the belief that oysters should be eaten only in months with an "r"?

A. There is no basis for this belief. In fact, the Federal Government is currently running an informational campaign to debunk the myth that oysters become gritty and less tasty from May through August. If you like oysters you'd better eat all you can get these days, because the quantity and quality of oysters are declining rapidly.

Bid Rejected For Vacating Part Of Road

LISBON — Columbiana County commissioners Thursday denied a petition for vacation of a portion of old Route 45 near Long's Crossing about 4.5 miles north of Lisbon.

Warren N. Bricker, who owns the land on either side of the road in the southeast quarter of Section 28, Salem Township, petitioned for the vacation last month. A dozen persons signed the petition which was approved by township trustees subject to final action by the commissioners.

Bricker was the only petitioner at the public hearing yesterday in the commissioners' office.

Nine persons opposed his request. They said the road is a good safe place for children to ride bicycles and that people who live farther up the hill park their cars there in snowy, slippery weather.

The opponents were Karen E. Shaw, Nancy McMillan, Mrs. Jack Hartman, Mrs. Otis McMillan, Mrs. William B. Davis, Mrs. Thelma Sayre, Linda McMillan and Mr. and Mrs. Fred Shaffer.

East Palestine American Legion Post 31 and Edward J. McGuckin VFW Post of East Palestine were allowed $50 each toward Memorial Day expenses.

The commissioners and personnel from Juvenile Court and the County Mental Health Clinic visited Akron today to inspect Summit County's juvenile detention facilities.

Cotten Finds Acting A Joy

A great many good actors aren't seen on TV since the medium was taken over by old movies and series with the same characters each week. One of these is Joseph Cotten.

Hal Humphrey

Except for a role in a "Cimarron Strip" last season, Cotten hasn't done any TV for three years. Most of this time he's been in London, Spain and Italy doing movies.

This coming season you'll see him on TV as a surgeon in an "Ironside" episode and as a German colonel in East Berlin for a two-part "It Takes a Thief," a role he just finished filming at Universal in Hollywood.

"AND I DO IT with a slight German accent," Cotten says, rather proudly. "I really have no accents. This one I brushed up on while on the plane from London. They played a Berlitz tape of German for half an hour on the closed-circuit audio, which I listened to instead of watching the movie."

Cotten spent a good part of his career getting rid of his Virginia-born accent. He rather enviously points out that his wife, actress Patricia Medina, speaks Spanish, French and Italian.

"But I seem to even be losing my English and will probably wind up with no language at all," he adds.

HE'LL SOON be going to London to guest in an episode of "Journey to the Unknown," a new TV series scheduled for ABC this fall, but being filmed in England by 20th Century-Fox.

Cotten and his wife try to plan their acting assignments to put them in the same locale. He believes married people should be together, even if they are actors. Both have missed their home in Pacific Palisades the past few years.

"I suppose actors have always been gypsies, except for that 20 years or so when the big Hollywood studios were operating and had all those actors under contract and did all their movies here," Cotten says.

AS A character member of Orson Welles' old Mercury Theater group, Cotten spent several years in New York on the stage and in radio. One of his first visits to Hollywood was when Welles called him to be in his movie "Citizen Kane," the controversial film about publisher William Randolph Hearst.

He went back to New York afterward to rejoin Katherine Hepburn for the road tour of "Philadelphia Story," which they'd done on Broadway. After that tour he was cast in another Hollywood movie, "Lydia," with Merle Oberon. This led to more movies and a contract with David O. Selznick.

Following a return to Broadway in "Sabrina Fair" in 1953, Cotten made his TV debut in an Evelyn Waugh story, "The High Green Wall," and later did many TV shows, including a series which he hosted and did some roles in. It was called "On Trial."

A FEW years ago Cotten succumbed to doing a series of TV commercials. He says the money was just too good and that it would have been disrespectful to turn it down.

"As far as the business is concerned, it was not detrimental to my career. In fact, I was busier when the commercials were on the air than before, and you get some independence from it in that the money allows you to be a bit more choosy when it comes to the junk you're offered in acting jobs," Cotten maintains.

There's little doubt, one suspects, however, that almost any actor would rather be acting than selling. Unfortunately, in TV today there are more opportunities to sell merchandise than to act.

COTTEN is no stranger to selling. He sold paint in Brooklyn when he found no producers' doors open to him during his early tries to be an actor in New York. When this petered out, he went to Miami and sold advertising for the Miami Herald. In his spare time he joined a little theater group from the University of Miami.

When he returned to New York it was with a letter of introduction to Burns Mantle, the critic, and this led to a job as understudy and assistant stage manager for David Belasco.

Progress Report Given On Play As Thespians Meet

The play, written by Summer Arthur Long, is being directed by Tom Henthorn. A three-act comedy with a cast of nine, it will be presented in mid-August at the theater.

Plans were advanced for the first anniversary of the group in October. Rosemary Morris and Lida Smith are co-chairmen of the committee in charge.

James Graham, president, said furniture is needed for rehearsals as well as the play. Any donations of chairs, lamps, sofas or other articles may be made by contacting Miss Smith of 133 Kountz Ave., Wellsville.

Graham also stressed the need for help in publicity, makeup, costuming and other areas of the production. Anyone interested in any phase of the program is invited to attend the next meeting Tuesday at 7:30 p.m. in the theater.

A rehearsal of the play followed. The cast will rehearse again tonight at 7 in the theater, Henthorn said.

Police Check Looting Of Six Parked Autos

Thieves broke into six parked cars in East Liverpool overnight, police reported.

The autos of Robert Spencer and John Pruitt, both of Glen Rose, Tex., were broken into between midnight and 6:35 a.m. while parked on a lot at the rear of the Heritage House Motel on E. 3rd St. A stereo tape player and four tapes were taken from Spencer's car. Nothing was missing from Pruitt's car. W. S. Kaufman of Elkins, W. Va., also reported his car was entered at the Heritage House and assorted tools, a transistor radio and a light were taken.

Doris J. Work of 527 Mulberry St. reported a thief who broke into her car overnight on Mulberry St. tore up the titles to a boat and a motor. Edward Sisco of Rochester told police two blankets were stolen from his auto early today on E. 6th St. James K. Shileds of 513 Mulberry St. told officers a thief vandalized the interior of his car overnight and tore up the registration papers.

2 Men Plead Innocent To Charge Of Assault

William Landy of 212 Baum St. and Kenneth Adkins of 2216 Crawford Ave., charged with assault and battery in connection with the beating of an elderly Grimms Bridge man, pleaded not guilty at a preliminary hearing Thursday before County Judge Barry Dickson at East Palestine.

They were returned to the Columbiana County Jail at Lisbon under $100 bond. Their next hearing was set for July 29. They were cited after an incident July 12 in which Carl Young of Grimms Bridge was beaten.

Alaskan Oil Find Lauded As 'Economy Stabilizer'

Associated Press Writer

JUNEAU, Alaska (AP) — Gov. Walter J. Hickel sees the discovery of oil in Alaska's Arctic region as a key unlocking the state's vast potential and a stabilizer of its economy.

"It's tremendous," the governor kept saying Thursday after hearing that reserves estimated by oil experts at 5 to 10 billion barrels had been found in the Prudhoe Bay area along Alaska's Arctic coast.

The U.S. Navy's Petroleum Reserve No. 4 lies to the west of the Atlantic Richfield-Humble discovery, in an area where the temperature merely toys with the freezing point—even during the long summer days when the Arctic sun never gets below the horizon.

Degolyer and MacNaughton, a Dallas oil consulting firm, said the new discovery has the potential of developing into one of the world's largest fields.

Located on a 90,000-acre block of federally leased land, the new discovery apparently confirms what petroleum geologists have long thought, that the Arctic Slope is a vast storehouse of oil and gas.

Gov. Hickel feels the oil income from the huge federal holdings on the north slope could be used to meet native demands for $500 million to drop claims blocking the state's efforts to select the 103 million acres promised by the statehood act.

He also sees it as possibly leading to the elimination of state income taxes, which brought in $31 million in the last fiscal year.

Alaska, which ranks 10th among the 32 oil producing states, received direct income from oil and gas production taxes, lease bonuses, royalties and rentals of over $40 million for the fiscal year ending June 30. The state's general fund budget for the year was $104 million.

The governor listed as his first priority the extension of the federally owned Alaska railroad from its northern terminus at Fairbanks the remaining 400 miles to the north coast.

Besides relieving the oil industry of the immediate need of building a $400 million pipeline to get the oil to ice-free tide-water, the railroad, he said, would provide a "two-way haul" to open up thousands of square miles of unexplored wilderness.

"We haven't even begun to top the mineral potential up there," Hickel said.

Probation Action Denied

Appeal Filed For Cusick In Auto Death Conviction

Robert E. Cusick Jr., 30, of West Point has appealed to the Seventh District Court of Appeals from his conviction on a traffic manslaughter charge Wednesday in Common Pleas Court at Lisbon.

He waived his right to file a motion for a new trial Wednesday afternoon and asked for investigation for probation.

Judge Raymond S. Buzzard overruled the request and sentenced him to 1 to 20 years in Ohio State Penitentiary and ordered his driver's license revoked for three years.

Defense Counsel Lawrence Cregan of Youngstown asked the court to set a stay of execution of sentence bond pending appeal, but Judge Buzzard denied the request and turned the prisoner over to the sheriff.

Cregan got the Court of Appeal at Youngstown to set the "stay" bond and Cusick was released after a bondsman went $10,000 bail. A factory worker in Salem, Cusick is the father of five children.

A jury found Cusick responsible for the death of Paul V. Dawson, 48, formerly of 1004 St. George St. here.

Mr. Dawson was one of four men killed in a head-on crash Nov. 11 on Route 30 and the Route 45 junction near West Point. Cusick, whose brother Arnold, 19, his passenger, was one of the victims, was also indicted in connection with the deaths of Donald M. Adkins, 26, formerly of Midland Heights, driver of the other car, and his father, Albert G. Adkins, 55, formerly of 447 Virginia Ave., East Liverpool.

The indictment for Dawson's death was the first tried. Prosecuting Atty. J. Warren Bettis said he does not plan to try Cusick again until the September term of court.

Tree Planting Planned At Trash Disposal Site

Mayor George E. Willshaw and Safety - Service Director Robert E. Vodrey continued work Thursday on plans to plant trees on the city's landfill trash dump in Madison Township as the big strip-mined area is filled gradually with trash.

The two officials conferred at the site with a representative of the Ohio Department of Natural Resources, which furnishes seedlings free for such conservation and beautification work. The state representative estimated the city's needs and the types of tree required. The mayor said the first planting may be made next spring.

The airlines distance between Washington, D. C. and Ankara, Turkey, over the "top of the world," is 5,420 miles.

ACNE AND MILK HORMONES

Q. I have heard that milk and other dairy products contain a hormone that causes acne. Is this true?

A. There is no evidence that milk contains such a hormone. Acne is caused primarily by hyperactive oil glands in the skin. The glands oversecrete and become plugged, producing acne. Acne is not caused by an improper diet, although the condition, once established, may worsen with a poor diet.

OYSTERS AND "R" MONTHS

Q. What is the basis for the belief that oysters should be eaten only in months with an "r"?

A. There is no basis for this belief. In fact, the Federal Government is currently running an informational campaign to debunk the myth that oysters become gritty and less tasty from May through August. If you like oysters you'd better eat all you can get these days, because the quantity and quality of oysters are declining rapidly.

Bid Rejected For Vacating Part Of Road

LISBON — Columbiana County commissioners Thursday denied a petition for vacation of a portion of old Route 45 near Long's Crossing about 4.5 miles north of Lisbon.

Warren N. Bricker, who owns the land on either side of the road in the southeast quarter of Section 28, Salem Township, petitioned for the vacation last month. A dozen persons signed the petition which was approved by township trustees subject to final action by the commissioners.

Bricker was the only petitioner at the public hearing yesterday in the commissioners' office.

Nine persons opposed his request. They said the road is a good safe place for children to ride bicycles and that people who live farther up the hill park their cars there in snowy, slippery weather.

The opponents were Karen E. Shaw, Nancy McMillan, Mrs. Jack Hartman, Mrs. Otis McMillan, Mrs. William B. Davis, Mrs. Thelma Sayre, Linda McMillan and Mr. and Mrs. Fred Shaffer.

East Palestine American Legion Post 31 and Edward J. McGuckin VFW Post of East Palestine were allowed $50 each toward Memorial Day expenses.

The commissioners and personnel from Juvenile Court and the County Mental Health Clinic visited Akron today to inspect Summit County's juvenile detention facilities.

U.S. Air Strikes Continue As Ground Fighting Slows

SAIGON (AP) — The spotlight shifted back to the air war in Vietnam Thursday as ground fighting relapsed into another lull.

With the threatened big Viet Cong offensive against Saigon evidently delayed and with President Nguyen Van Thieu in Honolulu for a summit meeting with President Johnson, a watch and wait mood prevailed in South Vietnam.

Over the southern panhandle of North Vietnam, American pilots flew 112 missions below the 19th parallel Thursday in the continuing effort to reduce the flow of supplies to enemy troops in the South.

Planes Score Hits

The fliers reported destroying or damaging 29 trucks, 11 supply boats and seven bridges and touching off 171 sustained fires and 31 secondary explosions. Air Force pilots said 57 of the fires were at a large military storage area about 30 miles above the demilitarized zone.

Marine pilots attacked the Dong Hoi airfield, believed to be used now as a supply base rather than an airstrip, while Navy pilots concentrated on highways and water traffic.

Eight-engine B52 bombers joined in the raids above the demilitarized zone and also struck eight times Thursday and today in South Vietnam against suspected enemy bases in the central highlands and on the central coast, in the Mekong Delta about 100 miles southwest of Saigon and in Tay Ninv Province about 50 miles northwest of the capital.

Cong Headquarters Found

National police reported uncovering what appeared to be a Viet Cong local headquarters in a residential district of the capital early today. Police seized two automatic rifles, nine Viet Cong flags, a typewriter, a tape recorder, documents and two suspects.

Viet Cong gunners fired a dozen rocket and mortar rounds into the Nha Be petroleum depot seven miles southeast of Saigon late Thursday, but U.S. spokesmen reported no casualties and only light damage.

U.S. Marines and South Vietnamese infantrymen probing high ridges just south of the central portion of the demilitarized zone still have not made any significant contact with North Vietnamese troops, Associated Press correspondent John Lengel reported. The operation is the first major allied move into the area in 18 months.

Hampson was arrested the day following the escape after an Oakmont neighborhood "posse" pursued and captured him. Johnston was found sleeping on a blanket at Grimms Bridge Wednesday afternoon.

Hampson and Johnston gave police statements in which they said they saw Stull passing the jail through an alley on July 8 and talked him into furnishing the jail break tools on a promise he would receive $50.

They said they began sawing on the window bar July 9 and worked intermittently at the task until the night of the escape. They said they covered the sawing sound by singing. Johnston said he went out the window first. Hampson related he waited about an hour and then followed. Both men said they made their way out of town afoot, following circuitous routes.

Johnston said he made his way to Grimms Bridge. He said he slept one night in an old boxcar and the next night in a lean-to which he built. He said he caught fish for food.

Before trying the pair locally, Judge Chertoff conferred with Richard J. Clark, assistant county prosecutor, in the absence of Prosecutor J. Warren Bettis, who is on vacation. The judge said the city had the option of charging the men with either a misdemeanor or felony and wished to know how the prosecutor's office wanted the case disposed of.

Clark suggested the local officials use their own discretion. It was then the men were charged under a misdemeanor statute, which permitted the cases to be disposed of locally instead of going to the grand jury.

City Quiet Today

Tear Gas Used By Police To Back Akron Curfew

AKRON, Ohio (AP) — Police used tear gas to break up some groups of youths as they enforced a curfew overnight Thursday in a Negro section that was the scene of widespread looting the previous night.

The arrests totaled 123 persons. Almost all arrested were Negroes. Forty - two persons were arrested Wednesday night.

Tear Gas Used

Police used tear gas in arresting about 40 young people as curfew violators Thursday night at the New Afro-American Liberation Front, a storefront club on Wooster Avenue.

Police ordered the youths to leave the clubhouse, but they answered that they thought the curfew order simply meant they had to be off the streets from 9 p. m. to 6 a. m.

The police, with some Summit County sheriff's deputies and guardsmen assisting, then broke windows and tossed tear gas inside. The youths were herded from the clubhouse into police vans. Newsmen on the scene said some were clubbed with nightsticks, but Police denied that anyone was clubbed.

Two young men were cut by glass and treated at a hospital.

Police Criticized

A Negro leader, Vernon Odum, executive director of the Akron Urban League, criticied what he called "extensive" use of tear gas by police Wednesday night. He said tear gas was thrown indiscriminately into the league's headquarters and a nearby record shop.

Police Chief Harry Widdon said gas was "vital to break up disturbances."

Mayor John F. Ballard acted quickly after a series of disturbances Wednesday night, asking the state for National Guard troops, clamping a curfew on the entire city and declaring a state of emergency.

Night classes were cancelled at the University of Akron, and the mayor asked retail stores and city buses to stop operations prior to the curfew.

No Looting

There was no repetition of the looting reported Wednesday night involving roving bands of young Negroes.

A force of 450 National Guardsmen was on duty. Gen. Sylvester Del Corso, Ohio adjutant general, said Thursday the troops ordered in by Gov. James A. Rhodes were armed and "the weapons will be loaded."

"When we order someone to stop and surrender himself, if he does not stop he will be shot," said Del Carso.

Trumbull Judge, 78, Cannot Be Candidate

WARREN, Ohio (AP)—Judge G. H. Birrell, who is completing his 24th year on the Trumbull County Common Pleas Court bench, has informed the election board he will not be a candidate for re - election this year.

The 78 - year - old judge was nominated without opposition in the May Republican primary. In announcing his withdrawal, he cited a recently enacted state amendment which prohibits anyone over 70 from running for a judgeship.

into the water in an attempt to save the boy and came almost within reach when he went under for the last time.

Chief Jones and Police Constable Richard Wright arrived shortly and Calcutta and Glenmoor firemen and East Liverpool firemen came to the scene. Constable Fred Fryman of Liverpool Township also assisted.

A rubber raft with Steve Young, Earl Garn and Don Crabtree of the Calcutta district and Curly Tuttle of Fairview St., Chester, was used to seek the body of the youth which was located about 10 p.m. some 20 feet downstream where he was last seen.

The victim, who attended fifth grade at Lincoln School this past year, was born Nov. 21, 1956.

He attended the First Church of the Nazarene.

In addition to his mother and brothers, he leaves his father, James Curtis Burchett of New Philadelphia, his maternal grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Bonner of East Liverpool, and the paternal grandmother, Mrs. Pearlie Burchett of Sprigg, W. Va.

Services will be held Monday at 10:30 a. m. at the Martin Funeral Home by the Rev. Howard W. Hill. Burial will be in Riverview Cemetery.

Friends may call at the funeral home Sunday afternoon and evening.

Action In Vietnam

U.S. Air Strikes Continue As Ground Fighting Slows

SAIGON (AP) — The spotlight shifted back to the air war in Vietnam Thursday as ground fighting relapsed into another lull.

With the threatened big Viet Cong offensive against Saigon evidently delayed and with President Nguyen Van Thieu in Honolulu for a summit meeting with President Johnson, a watch and wait mood prevailed in South Vietnam.

Over the southern panhandle of North Vietnam, American pilots flew 112 missions below the 19th parallel Thursday in the continuing effort to reduce the flow of supplies to enemy troops in the South.

Planes Score Hits

The fliers reported destroying or damaging 29 trucks, 11 supply boats and seven bridges and touching off 171 sustained fires and 31 secondary explosions. Air Force pilots said 57 of the fires were at a large military storage area about 30 miles above the demilitarized zone.

Marine pilots attacked the Dong Hoi airfield, believed to be used now as a supply base rather than an airstrip, while Navy pilots concentrated on highways and water traffic.

Eight-engine B52 bombers joined in the raids above the demilitarized zone and also struck eight times Thursday and today in South Vietnam against suspected enemy bases in the central highlands and on the central coast, in the Mekong Delta about 100 miles southwest of Saigon and in Tay Ninv Province about 50 miles northwest of the capital.

Cong Headquarters Found

National police reported uncovering what appeared to be a Viet Cong local headquarters in a residential district of the capital early today. Police seized two automatic rifles, nine Viet Cong flags, a typewriter, a tape recorder, documents and two suspects.

Viet Cong gunners fired a dozen rocket and mortar rounds into the Nha Be petroleum depot seven miles southeast of Saigon late Thursday, but U.S. spokesmen reported no casualties and only light damage.

U.S. Marines and South Vietnamese infantrymen probing high ridges just south of the central portion of the demilitarized zone still have not made any significant contact with North Vietnamese troops, Associated Press correspondent John Lengel reported. The operation is the first major allied move into the area in 18 months.

Hampson was arrested the day following the escape after an Oakmont neighborhood "posse" pursued and captured him. Johnston was found sleeping on a blanket at Grimms Bridge Wednesday afternoon.

Hampson and Johnston gave police statements in which they said they saw Stull passing the jail through an alley on July 8 and talked him into furnishing the jail break tools on a promise he would receive $50.

They said they began sawing on the window bar July 9 and worked intermittently at the task until the night of the escape. They said they covered the sawing sound by singing. Johnston said he went out the window first. Hampson related he waited about an hour and then followed. Both men said they made their way out of town afoot, following circuitous routes.

Johnston said he made his way to Grimms Bridge. He said he slept one night in an old boxcar and the next night in a lean-to which he built. He said he caught fish for food.

Before trying the pair locally, Judge Chertoff conferred with Richard J. Clark, assistant county prosecutor, in the absence of Prosecutor J. Warren Bettis, who is on vacation. The judge said the city had the option of charging the men with either a misdemeanor or felony and wished to know how the prosecutor's office wanted the case disposed of.

Clark suggested the local officials use their own discretion. It was then the men were charged under a misdemeanor statute, which permitted the cases to be disposed of locally instead of going to the grand jury.

City Quiet Today

Tear Gas Used By Police To Back Akron Curfew

AKRON, Ohio (AP) — Police used tear gas to break up some groups of youths as they enforced a curfew overnight Thursday in a Negro section that was the scene of widespread looting the previous night.

The arrests totaled 123 persons. Almost all arrested were Negroes. Forty - two persons were arrested Wednesday night.

Tear Gas Used

Police used tear gas in arresting about 40 young people as curfew violators Thursday night at the New Afro-American Liberation Front, a storefront club on Wooster Avenue.

Police ordered the youths to leave the clubhouse, but they answered that they thought the curfew order simply meant they had to be off the streets from 9 p. m. to 6 a. m.

The police, with some Summit County sheriff's deputies and guardsmen assisting, then broke windows and tossed tear gas inside. The youths were herded from the clubhouse into police vans. Newsmen on the scene said some were clubbed with nightsticks, but Police denied that anyone was clubbed.

Two young men were cut by glass and treated at a hospital.

Police Criticized

A Negro leader, Vernon Odum, executive director of the Akron Urban League, criticied what he called "extensive" use of tear gas by police Wednesday night. He said tear gas was thrown indiscriminately into the league's headquarters and a nearby record shop.

Mayor John F. Ballard acted quickly after a series of disturbances Wednesday night, asking the state for National Guard troops, clamping a curfew on the entire city and declaring a state of emergency.

Night classes were cancelled at the University of Akron, and the mayor asked retail stores and city buses to stop operations prior to the curfew.

No Looting

There was no repetition of the looting reported Wednesday night involving roving bands of young Negroes.

A force of 450 National Guardsmen was on duty. Gen. Sylvester Del Corso, Ohio adjutant general, said Thursday the troops ordered in by Gov. James A. Rhodes were armed and "the weapons will be loaded."

"When we order someone to stop and surrender himself, if he does not stop he will be shot," said Del Carso.

Trumbull Judge, 78, Cannot Be Candidate

WARREN, Ohio (AP)—Judge G. H. Birrell, who is completing his 24th year on the Trumbull County Common Pleas Court bench, has informed the election board he will not be a candidate for re - election this year.

The 78 - year - old judge was nominated without opposition in the May Republican primary. In announcing his withdrawal, he cited a recently enacted state amendment which prohibits anyone over 70 from running for a judgeship.

into the water in an attempt to save the boy and came almost within reach when he went under for the last time.

Chief Jones and Police Constable Richard Wright arrived shortly and Calcutta and Glenmoor firemen and East Liverpool firemen came to the scene. Constable Fred Fryman of Liverpool Township also assisted.

A rubber raft with Steve Young, Earl Garn and Don Crabtree of the Calcutta district and Curly Tuttle of Fairview St., Chester, was used to seek the body of the youth which was located about 10 p.m. some 20 feet downstream where he was last seen.

The victim, who attended fifth grade at Lincoln School this past year, was born Nov. 21, 1956.

He attended the First Church of the Nazarene.

In addition to his mother and brothers, he leaves his father, James Curtis Burchett of New Philadelphia, his maternal grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Bonner of East Liverpool, and the paternal grandmother, Mrs. Pearlie Burchett of Sprigg, W. Va.

Services will be held Monday at 10:30 a. m. at the Martin Funeral Home by the Rev. Howard W. Hill. Burial will be in Riverview Cemetery.

Friends may call at the funeral home Sunday afternoon and evening.

Homeowner Protests New Assessments

WALES, Mass. (AP) — Alex Ross spent three years repairing and improving his 12-room house on Main Street.

The result, he says, is that the town assessors increased his taxes. He really became upset, though, when he received a $35 tax bill on a former hen house which he tore down months ago.

He said the town officials told him they couldn't afford to allow the abatement.

"Apparently the secret to success in this town is to depress the value of your property," he said.

So now he has collected a pile of junk, which he has spread out over his front lawn.

'Old Swimming Hole' Closed By Pollution

GREENFIELD, Ind. (AP) — The "old swimming hole" in Brandywine Creek, subject of an 1883 poem by James Whitcomb Riley, was ordered closed Thursday by Dr. R. E. Kinneman, Hancock County health officer.

The wide place in the creek, a half-mile outside Greenfield when Riley was a boy in the 19th century, now is surrounded by building developments.

Dr. Kinneman said the creek now is polluted from sewers and septic tanks and unsafe for swimming.

Fire Stations Armed With Riot Weapons

TOWSON, Md. (AP) — Baltimore County fire stations have been armed with two sawed-off shotguns for protection in future riots.

T. Austin Deitz, deputy chief of the fire department, said Wednesday the weapons were to be used by firemen "only in the case of riots, if our stations are attacked.

"They will be used only to prevent our stations from being fire-bombed or looted. We're not going to ride to fires with them," Deitz said.

He said two shotguns and 50 rounds of ammunition were issued about two weeks ago to each of the 17 stations in the county surrounding Baltimore, where rioting and looting broke out last April.

East St. Louis Gets Extension On Credit

EAST ST. LOUIS, Ill. (AP) — East St. Louis got a credit extension Wednesday from the Mobil Oil Co., which had threatened to sell no more gasoline for city vehicles until a five-month old bill was paid.

The firm told the city it would extend credit until Aug. 1. and the city told Mobil that it could now pay $4,000 on the $16,000 bill, the funds coming from trash collection fees.

The financially beleagured city had to issue wage consignments redeemable at local banks last week because of a $60,000 payroll shortage. East St. Louis has operated in the red since 1951.

Norwegian Describes Country To 4-H'ers

LISBON — Sigurd Risdal, an International Farm Youth Exchange delegate, told the Columbiana County Junior Leadership Club about Norway—his homeland—Thursday evening at St. George Parish Hall.

The young farmer has been staying the past two weeks with Gordon Gibson of Winona, and will leave Saturday to spend two weeks with a host family in Champaign county.

Homeowner Protests New Assessments

WALES, Mass. (AP) — Alex Ross spent three years repairing and improving his 12-room house on Main Street.

The result, he says, is that the town assessors increased his taxes. He really became upset, though, when he received a $35 tax bill on a former hen house which he tore down months ago.

He said the town officials told him they couldn't afford to allow the abatement.

"Apparently the secret to success in this town is to depress the value of your property," he said.

So now he has collected a pile of junk, which he has spread out over his front lawn.

'Old Swimming Hole' Closed By Pollution

GREENFIELD, Ind. (AP) — The "old swimming hole" in Brandywine Creek, subject of an 1883 poem by James Whitcomb Riley, was ordered closed Thursday by Dr. R. E. Kinneman, Hancock County health officer.

The wide place in the creek, a half-mile outside Greenfield when Riley was a boy in the 19th century, now is surrounded by building developments.

Dr. Kinneman said the creek now is polluted from sewers and septic tanks and unsafe for swimming.

Guard Called To Pen On Trouble Rumor

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — About 40 Ohio National Guardsmen were deployed at the Ohio Penitentiary at 6 a. m. today in what state officials described as a precautionary move brought on by rumors of inmate unrest.

John McElroy, top aide to Gov. James A. Rhodes, said a tip was received from inside the prison that there might be trouble today. The guardsmen were called in, he said, to let the prisoners know "we have the additional manpower."

Golf, Bridge Invitational Attracts Throng Of 135

About 135 members and guests attended the "Invitation Tournament" of the Golf and Bridge Association Wednesday afternoon at the Country Club.

Hostesses for the luncheon and bridge were Mrs. Richard Bonistalli, Mrs. Arthur Cloran, Mrs. James Roslund, Mrs. George Shaw, Mrs. Gordon Starkey, Mrs. Robert Williams and Mrs. Clarence Wetzel. Miss Peggy Porter was chairman for the "snacks on tee."

Prizes were won by Mrs. Paul Randall, Mrs. Fred Banfield, Mrs. Stewart Thompson, Mrs. Janis Lauva, Mrs. Bayard Hunsicker, Mrs. Wilbert A. Betz, Mrs. William E. Dunlap Jr., Mrs. Collin Kinsey, Mrs. Kenneth Gibbs, Mrs. Frank A. Dawson, Mrs. David Spore, Mrs. Richard Witherow, Mrs. Richard R. Crable, Mrs. Gerald Ryan, Miss Gladys DeBolt and Mrs. Carl McCutcheon. Mrs. William McNicol received the special award.

The "July Cup Luncheon," originally scheduled for Aug. 7, has been advanced to July 31.

The next bridge session will be Wednesday at 1 p. m.

Chester Couple Guests At Party On Anniversary

Mr. and Mrs. J. Floyd Peddycord of 336 Carolina Ave., Chester, were honored with a party Tuesday in observance of their 50th wedding anniversary.

The affair was held at the home of their daughter, Mrs. W. S. (Geraldine) Thompson of Georgia Ave.

Mrs. Peddycord is the former Florance Pipes. She taught six years in the Chester area schools. Her husband is a retired pottery worker. He also was an insurance man at one time.

The couple was married July 16, 1918, in the Newell Presbyterian Church. They have resided in this area throughout their married life.

In addition to their daughter, Mrs. Thompson, who is a teacher in East Liverpool, they have a son, James F. Peddycord II, a teacher in Citrus County, Fla., and two grandsons.

Cut Pillow For Leg Room

DEAR HELOISE: Japanese women are way ahead of us by using that roll under their necks to sleep on instead of a standard pillow. But I'm not far behind!

Heloise

I cut my foam bed pillows in half LENGTHWISE.

This gives me several extra inches of bed for my legs to stretch out, and it is wonderful not to have all that extra pillow mussing up my coiffure.

Also, think of the material I save in pillow tubing and casing!

A.H.

This is what I call a really great idea! Most of us sleep only on a small portion of our big pillows anyway . . . with the top of our heads at least a foot from the headboard.

Thanks for giving us this idea. Our tall husbands will appreciate that little extra head room and will be less likely to kick out the covers at the foot of the bed.

HELOISE.

DEAR HELOISE: Recently a friend of my daughter came over with his guitar. But he had forgotten his guitar pick.

Searching around, I located an old credit card no longer usable and cut one for him out of this piece of plastic. And it worked perfectly.

MRS. L. D. HOLLMAN.

DEAR HELOISE: Here's a clever trick I learned at a Hawaiian party.

One half was set with the green skin upright (cut side down) and used for hors d'oeuvres on toothpicks stuck into the melon.

A piece of the bottom was sliced off the other half so that it could be used as a bowl, without rolling over. In this was a fresh fruit mixture, consisting of watermelon and cantaloupe balls, pineapple chunks, banana slices and other tropical fruits.

MRS. G.O.

DEAR HELOISE: Here'a way to make boys' outgrown shirts usable for the girls.

The botton-down collar can even take on a new look. Sew up the buttonholes on the collar and hide them with an embroidered rose or other design.

My girls are delighted with them, and it pleases me, too, to be able to make use of the shirts.

MOTHER.

DEAR HELOISE: As quite a number of families stick to one brand of toothpaste, here's an idea that might be useful.

Frequently when the cap is lost down the drain or thrown away by mistake, you are left with a messy tube and basin until the toothpaste is used up.

Fortas Cites Constitution In Answering His Critics

WASHINGTON (AP) — Abe Fortas has told Senate critics the Constitution allows him to lecture and write about issues that come before the Supreme Court, but forbids him to answer questions from members of Congress about the same matters.

Fortas repeated this theme over and over Thursday before the Senate Judiciary Committee as he testified for the third day on his qualifications to succeed Earl Warren as chief justice of the United States.

Rough Session

It was by far the roughest meeting yet for Fortas. But prospects were that today's session would be the last for him, opening the way for committee questioning of Homer Thornberry, named by Johnson to fill the vacancy created by Fortas' elevation from justice to chief justice.

Fotas did tell the committee he was opposed to Communists holding defense jobs or teaching school and that he approved of Congress' right to investigate subversion.

And, he said, "there is under our system of government no place for lawlessness or violence."

Fortas Balks

But when pressed by Sen. Strom Thurmond, R-S.C., to relate these beliefs to recent Supreme Court decisions in which he took part, Fortas drew the line.

"My constitutional responsibility requires me, however unpleasant it may be, to decline to answer questions of the kind you have propounded," Fortas said.

"I regret it. I repeat, I regret it deeply," he added.

Fortas said "judges . . . may not be held to answer before any other branch of the government for their views." He called this a principle "that is fundamental to our tripartite division of government."

Thurmond said "it might be hard to explain to the public" how Fortas could make lectures and otherwise expound on his views and then say he could not answer questions "when you come before the Judiciary Committee for a promotion to be chief justice of the United States."

"You have expressed your views to the President when he has called you down there, and over the telephone, haven't you" Thurmond asked.

"No, sir," Fortas replied. "Never."

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Selective Service System will not put any more men into the 1A pool in August and September.

This will be one major effect, a Selective Service spokesman said, of the agency's announcement Thursday that it won't hold any pre-induction physicals during those months.

The holddown on physicals is being tried as an economy move but it may turn out to be no more than a delaying action, the spokesman said.

Rhodes Predicts Several Ballots At GOP Conclave

CINCINNATI (AP) — The Republican presidential nomination could very well go beyond the third ballot, Gov. James A. Rhodes told newsmen shortly after he arrived in Cincinnati Thursday.

The governor arrived early for the Governor's Conference which opens Sunday. He is host.

He stepped from his airplane at Lunken Airport and departed for the Hotel Sheraton - Gibson in a new white Cadillac bearing his special license plate. Identical cars have been assigned to each of the 54 state and territorial governors.

Rhodes ruled himself out as a candidate for the vice presidency. "I want to say something like (Gen. William) Tecumseh Sherman—if nominated I will not run, if elected I will not serve."

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Selective Service System will not put any more men into the 1A pool in August and September.

This will be one major effect, a Selective Service spokesman said, of the agency's announcement Thursday that it won't hold any pre-induction physicals during those months.

The holddown on physicals is being tried as an economy move but it may turn out to be no more than a delaying action, the spokesman said.

Thieu, LBJ Are Expected To Discuss Peace Moves

HONOLULU (AP) — President Johnson and South Vietnam's President Nguyen Van Thieu formal talks apparently will embrace possible direct Saigon-Viet Cong negotiations and a total bombing halt in the North.

In advance of today's first formal meeting at the hilltop headquarters of the U.S. Pacific Command, Secretary of Defense Clark Clifford said he avoided those two topics during his Saigon visit earlier in the week "in order to leave that up to Thieu and President Johnson."

Clifford talked to newsmen Thursday at Hickam Field as he waited with Johnson to greet Thieu's chartered airliner.

LBJ Welcomes Thieu

Johnson, in welcoming the South Vietnamese leader, touched on the peace search under way in Paris and offered these words of reassurance to his visitor:

"Mr. President, our pledge to help your people defeat aggression stands firm against all obstacles and against any deception."

Thieu, dwarfed by the U.S. chief executive, responded by saying he looked forward to discussions of "accomplishments as well as problems that lie before us." He said he hoped for "steps toward peace and freedom for Vietnam and Southeast Asia."

Only a few score uniformed military personnel and dependants, plus a small costumed delegation from Honolulu's Vietnamese colony, were allowed to witness the arrival ceremony. Authorities obviously had taken pains to avoid any antiwar demonstration.

Travel By Helicopter

The American President was quartered at a luxury seaside home built by the late industrialist Henry J. Kaiser. It was sealed off from the curious. Thieu was staying at the Royal Hawaiian Hotel on Waikiki beach.

After Johnson's arrival in Hawaii Thursday afternoon, White House officials learned about a published report from Saigon that Clifford, while there, had persuaded Thieu to make two major "concessions"—to go along with a total bombing halt in the North and to agree to direct talks with Viet Cong representatives at broadened peace negotiations to be proposed at some point in the future.

Tom Johnson, assistant White House press secretary, quickly quoted Clifford as saying, "The report is wholly inaccurate."

Man Sentenced In 3 Crimes Gets Stay Until Child's Birth

LISBON — Vernon Kubankin, 20, of Hartley Rd., Salem RD 1, had only one request on being sentenced for three crimes here Thursday — a stay of sentence until his wife has her first child.

Judge Joel H. Sharp of Common Pleas Court granted the request made through Defense Counsel Guy Mauro of Salem, who said the baby is expected about Aug. 1. Kubankin was returned to the County Jail to await the announcement.

Then he will be taken to the Ohio State Penitentiary at Columbus to serve consecutive sentences for:

Burglary—March 8 at Ivan's Exchange, 1019 Liberty St., Salem, 1 to 15 years;

Escape from confinement — Jail break March 18 at the County Jail, 1 to 5 years, and Perjury — Reversing his statement concerning the burglary when he testified for the state May 8 in the trial of Dennis D. Hunter, 18, formerly of 211 W. 8th St., Salem, also charged with the break-in at Ivan's, 1 to 10 years.

While awaiting grand jury action on the burglary charge last March, Kubankin and five other County Jail prisoners sawed their way through the bars and escaped. Salem police captured him the day following at a house trailer on Garfield Ave., Salem Heights.

The grand jury indicted Kubankin for the burglary and jail break. He pleaded guilty to both and asked for investigation for probation.

Then, when he took the stand for the state in Hunter's trial, he changed a statement that he, Hunter and Charles L. Fulton, 20, of Mount Vernon, had committed the burglary, and said he broke in alone without their knowledge.

The jury acquitted Hunter, but he was sentenced May 24 to 1 to 5 years in the penitentiary for jail-breaking.

Prosecuting Atty. J. Warren Bettis did not call Kubankin for Fulton's trial, but the defense did and the state, during cross-examination, was able to bring to light a letter Kubankin wrote to his wife just before he was taken to the Courthouse to testify in Hunter's trial.

He told her, "I am going to get Hunter and Fulton off the hook; I am going to tell them I was the only one." Kubankin added that he knew he wouldn't get probation anyway "so I am going to help the other two." Fulton was convicted and sentenced to 1 to 15 years in the Ohio State Reformatory.

All mail to and from the prisoners is censored — a rule known to all prisoners. Kubankin's letter was turned over to the prosecutor.

Philippine Girl Reads 50,000 Words A Minute

CHICAGO (AP) — In the time it takes most people to read the label on a cereal box, 15-year-old Maria Teresa Calderon could read half a book or more if she didn't have to turn the pages.

Her teacher says Maria, of Manila, the Philippines, reads at a rate of 50,000 words a minute with nearly 100 per cent comprehension, while adult readers average 300 words a minute at 60 per cent or less comprehension.

"I think I'd like to read the encyclopedia from A to Z," Maria said in an interview Thursday.

Unbelievable? The teacher Dr. Florence Schale, director of the reading improvement program at Northwestern University's evening division, said Maia proved her skill in a test.

Maria read a four-page article for the final test of a five-week rapid reading course. She zipped through the article, containing 3,135 words, in 3.5 seconds—an average of more than 53,600 words per minute.

Maria was one of 12 students who this week completed the course developed by Dr. Schale, who was quick to point out that Maria "is an exceptional child."

The third youngest of seven children of Mr. and Mrs. Jose D. Calderon of Quezon City, Maria has been in the United States for nine months. Her native language is tagalog. The family speaks English and tagalog at home.

Her father is a lawyer in Manila, president of the Philippines Petroleum Association and a member of the Manila stock exchange. Her mother, Betty, is a former history professor at the Philippines Women's College and a former lieutenant governor of Nueva Vicaya province in the Philippines.

Maria, the fifth of the Calderon children to study in the United States, will return to high school in the autumn as a junior at St. Clare Academy in Sinsinawa, Wis.

Ike Drops Neutrality

Backing By Eisenhower Seen Beneficial To Nixon

By WALTER MEARS
Associated Press Writer

WASHINGTON (AP) — Richard M. Nixon believes his endorsement by former President Dwight D. Eisenhower may persuade some uncommitted Republican National Convention delegates to back his presidential candidacy.

Nixon told newsmen shortly after Eisenhower's endorsement Thursday that persuasion of uncommitted delegates was one possible benefit.

But, he added, the endorsement also should provide a lift not only to his current drive for the presidential nomination but beyond that to the fall campaign.

Neither Eisenhower nor Nixon contended the endorsement would be decisive and both insisted that despite Nixon's hefty-delegate lead the convention that opens Aug. 5 in Miami Beach will be open.

The reaction of Nixon's chief rival for the nomination, New York Gov. Nelson A. Rockefeller, said the endorsement was no surprise to him.

"It would be embarrassing for him if he didn't" get the endorsement since Eisenhower's grandson is about to marry one of Nixon's daughters, Rockefeller said.

California Gov. Ronald Reagan, potential candidate for the nomination, told a news conference in Sacremento that he had expected the endorsement.

Referring to the eight years Nixon served as vice president under Eisenhower and the impending marriage, Reagan said "they had a long and fruitful relationship and now they are going to be joined in a family way."

The 77-year-old Eisenhower, dropping his rule of preconvention neutrality on grounds the issues are great and the situation confusing, held a hospital news conference to announce that Nixon is the man he wants nominated by the convention.

ANN LANDERS

Humiliation By The Boss

By Ann Landers

Dear Ann Landers: My husband is an attractive, dignified man — respected and well liked by everyone. Dwayne holds a good position with a nationally known firm. He came home from work this evening and repeated the following story:

About 3 p.m. he walked from his desk to the water cooler. As he was leaning over to take a drink, his boss (an elderly man) came up behind him and gave him three hard slaps on the backside. This was in full view of the entire office. The boss then shouted in a voice that could be heard by everyone, "That will teach you to waste time. Get back to your desk and go to work."

My husband is so humiliated by this public spanking that he wants to quit his job. I've tried to tell him the old man was kidding and he should not be so sensitive. At the same time, I must agree it's a mighty strange way for a boss to treat a 36-year-old employe. Your opinion is wanted. — HOUSTON.

Dear Houston: Kidding, you say? The old gaffer sounds senile to me. If your husband has a good job I hope he'll not quit because of this single incident. Encourage him to consider the source and make allowances.

Where There's A Will

Dear Ann: Many people read your column and little else. Please get across this vital message to Mr. and Mrs. America.

First: You are not going to live forever. Second: Unless you don't give a hoot about what happens to your money and possessions after you are gone, put your wishes in writing and make it legal.

I work in a lawyer's office and I've heard the following statements so many times it makes me sick: "I know Papa wanted to put his nephews through college. He said so many times but his second wife is keeping everything for herself." Here's another familiar tune: "My sister would not like what is happening in the family. She often told me she would provide for our invalid brother but her selfish children have inherited everything and feel they owe their uncle nothing."—Unless it's written down and in legal form, you can be sure of nothing, except that the law will take over. What's right morally or what "Papa wanted" doesn't amount to a hill of beans unless it's in writing and 100 per cent legal. — BROKEN RECORD

Dear Record: I hope every person who reads your letter will ask himself, "If I died tomorrow would my property and goods be divided just as I want them to be?"

Short Sighted

Dear Ann: My mother and dad have been divorced for two years. Dad was mean to her and she is glad to be rid of him. He was mean to us kids, too, and we're happy he has moved away.

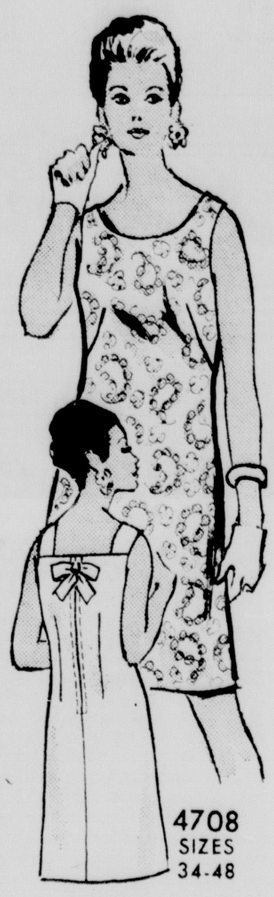

Mom is seeing a divorced man. He's good to her and acts like a father to my two younger brothers. The problem is that I'm ashamed my parents are divorced and I've told my friends this man is my uncle. I hope Mom doesn't marry him but I don't know how to tell her. She is 43 years old and her life is just about over. Can you help me? — HAZEL EYES.

Dear Hazel: You'd better set the record straight before your "uncle" turns out to be your stepdad. And another thing you'd better get straight is that a woman 43 does not have one foot in the grave. In a few years you and your brothers will be on your own and your mom will be alone. Wish her luck and be happy for her.

Ann Landers will be glad to help you with your problems. Send them to her in care of The Review, enclosing a self-addressed, stamped envelope.

This St. Bernard Just Isn't Friendly

VANCOUVER, Wash. (AP) — A St. Bernard forgot at the Vancouver Kennel Club show that his breed is supposed to be the kindly rescue-people-lost-in-the-snow type.

He bit the judge.

Judge Oliver Harriman, Pebble Beach, Calif., who was working the St. Bernard class, had to be treated at a hospital for head and neck lacerations.

The dog? He won fourth place in his class.

That Strange Object Was Weather Balloon

LOGAN, Ohio (AP) — The sun's reflection off a weather balloon caused a flurry of UFO reports in this southcentral area of Ohio Thursday evening. Hundreds of calls were received by sheriff's offices in Hocking, Pickaway, Fairfield, Perry and Meigs counties.

A Hocking County deputy sheriff here observed the object with high-powered binoculars and said it appeared to be a clear plastic weather balloon about 12 feet in diameter and floating at a high altitude.

Foreign Aid Program Cut By Congress

WASHINGTON (AP) — The House, ignoring a plea by President Johnson, has slashed another $370-million-plus from the foreign aid authorization bill, leaving $1.994 billion for the program.

It was the first time the authorization has fallen below $2 billion and despite the deep cuts and the possibility of more trimming when the money is actually appropriated, supporters were considered lucky that the bill survived at all.

There had been moves in the House to clamp a moratorium on all foreign aid.

The $1.994-billion bill for the fiscal year which started last July 1 was approved by 228-184 Thursday night and sent to the Senate.

The 44-vote margin was a far cry from the eight votes by which a $2.67 billion authorization was approved last year when Congress actually appropriated $2.2 billion.

Johnson had appealed to Congress not to cut any more from the bill which was slashed nearly $600 million by the House Foreign Affairs Committee.

A small group of Republicans, lead by Rep. E. Ross Adair of Indiana, had set their sights on cutting another $400 million on the House floor. They almost made it, reducing the total by some $370.8 million, as a late 267-150 roll call overturned earlier defeats for some cuts.

The House also wrote in a directive for the President to negotiate with Israel for the sale of 50 F4 Phantom Jet fighters which backers claimed is necessary for peace in the Middle East. They pointed to the Soviet Union's supplying jet fighters and bombers to Egypt.

By top-heavy margins the House insisted that no funds under the military assistance program be given to less developed countries for the purchase of such sophisticated weapons as jet planes or missiles. If these nations buy the systems with their own funds, the President is directed to withhold economic aid in a like amount.

Kiwanians Hear Two 4-H'ers Tell Of Organization

A description of the activities and objectives of 4-H programs was presented by two outstanding county 4-H'ers during a meeting of the Kiwanis Club Thursday at the Travelers Hotel.

Gordon McDonald, recently appointed Columbiana County extension agent in 4-H, described his duties and the program in the county. He said there are 1,100 boys and girls in the rural and urban clubs, and it is hoped there will be 1,700 by 1970 under a development project.

Miss Robinson listed the various projects and opportunities available for club members, and the awards which can be earned. She said the organization provides for true self - improvement and realization of personal talents.

Man Rescues Girls From Great Miami

CINCINNATI (AP) — Rick Thomas, 20, Cincinnati, was credited by police with saving the lives of two girls from a treacherous stretch of water of the Great Miami River just west of here Thursday.

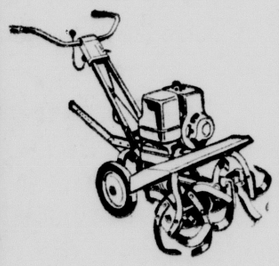

The two, Lois Records, 16, and April Sherherd, 9, both from Cincinnati, had stepped off into deep water while wading near the white water bridge off U.S. 50. Thomas jumped in and pulled them to safety.

The Review Sports

FRIDAY, JULY 19, 1968 EAST LIVERPOOL REVIEW PAGE 12

Sports Whirled

By TURK PIERCE
Review Sports Editor

The ad said: "Why do you suppose some people say baseball is a dull spectacle? No shoot-'em-up. No stabbing. No sex. No torture. No sock-thud. No robbery (except stolen bases). Baseball is just clean, wholesome fun. See the Mets . . ."

A good ad, but one with a horrifying implication. The implication is that the average American is interested in violence. And the implication is true.

More and more people have no respect for other people in this country. If two people disagree, violence is the usual way of settling the argument, be it with a gun, a knife or fists. Baseball, it is pointed out, is a sane pastime in a society off keel.

OUR SOCIETY is so enamored of violence that a lobbying group representing a very small percentage of people, the National Rifle Association, can influence Congress not to pass meaningful gun control legislation despite the fact that every day there is a new story of killing involving guns.

Despite the fact that Associated Press statistics show that states with tougher gun control laws have less murders. Despite the fact that these same statistics show that on a population basis, the United States has 130 times as many murders by gun as West Germany, 90 times as many murders as The Netherlands, and almost twice as many murders as the next worst non-communist industrialized nation, Australia.

Despite the fact that FBI chief J. Edgar Hoover, as long ago as 1946, called for stronger gun legislation. "There has been a strong lobby against firearms legislation by organizations of citizens of good standing who do not want to interfere with people hunting. But you have to register an automobile, and it would be just as simple to register a pistol, revolver and so forth," Hoover says.

SPORTSMEN, of course, commit very few of the gun murders. They feel they would be penalized under gun control legislation because of the acts of maniacs. They would. But people who never have an auto accident still have to register their cars, and cars are used only incidentally to kill. People who have no children still pay taxes to support schools. No tax can ever be completely fair.

Gun registration wouldn't eliminate crimes by gun. But it would cut them down, as the Europeans have shown. Almost every news publication in the country is calling for legislation, but the NRA has the ear of Congress. It was once said the pen is mightier than the sword, but apparently the typewriter is not as mighty as the gun.

Baseball may be dull, but it's better than getting shot.

Jim Musuraca Slams Homer

By TURK PIERCE
Review Sports Editor

East Liverpool Post 374 trounced Leetonia 8-1 in the opening round of the Columbiana County American Legion baseball tournament at Midland last night.

Bill Montgomery and Jim Musuraca shared the mound chores for the winners, scattering four hits, with Montgomery getting the win. Musuraca poled a long homer and Montgomery and Dan Cunningham tripled.

Cunningham also had a single and Bob Bartram had a pair of hits as Post 374 connected for nine safeties off loser Ted Conrad and reliever John Davis. Three errors led to five unearned runs.

Post 374 opened the scoring in the first with two runs scoring on a strikeout. Bartram singled and Cunningham walked and both moved up on a wild pitch with one out. Jim Duffy fanned, but the ball got away from catcher Davis and when he was low getting it at the backstop Cunningham scored all the way from a second. Shortstop Angelo (Poochie) Nicotera made a great grab of a liner by Tom Chambers and doubled Duffy off first to end the inning.

Post 374 really teed off on Conrad in the third. Bartram walked and Cunningham tripled him home. Rex Campbell singled to score Cunningham, moved to second on a wild pickoff attempt and scored when Duffy's grounder went through third baseman Kurt Bacon. Musuraca plated Duffy with a homer to deep center.

Leetonia's lone run scored in the fourth when Nicotera walked and Davis tripled. Montgomery bore down to get the next three batters on two strikeouts and a pop fly.

Post 374 closed out the scoring in the fifth when Campbell walked, took second on a wild pitch, went to third as Chambers got a scratch hit and scored on a passed ball.

The locals will play the winner of the Salem - Columbiana game in the next game of the double - elimination tournament, but first travel to New Philadelphia Saturday and Sunday for the district tournament. Post 374 drew a bye in the six - team field and will meet Millersburg at 4 p.m. Saturday. Three straight wins would clinch the district crown for Post 374.

Wilson Over Injuries, Beats A's For Tigers

By MIKE RECHT
Associated Press Sports Writer

The Detroit Tigers, after a brief plunge, seem to have righted themselves and resumed their earlier course that had them flying high in the American League.

After taking a commanding 9½ game lead into the All-Star break, the Tigers dropped two of three games at Minnesota and two straight to California, the first time this season they had lost two consecutive series.

Making things shakier still was the flight out of Anahelm in which their airplane plunged 500 feet to avoid hitting another plane in the traffic pattern during take off.

The Tigers steadied in Oakland and rode Earl Wilson's six-hitter to a 3-1 victory over the Athletics Thursday, giving them the series to games to one.

The victory brought Detroit's lead back to seven games over idle Cleveland while Baltimore fell to third place, 7½ games behind, by losing to the Chicago White Sox 2-1.

The New York Yankees stopped Washington 4-1 in the only night game and Minnesota bombed Boston 7-2 in the only other contest.

Wilson, who led the league with 22 victories last season, took the Tigers in hand during his own attempt to get back on the beam after two earlier injuries kept him sidelined a month.

The hard-throwing right-hander, evening his record at 7-7, had a three-hit shutout until a double by Ramon Webster, a single by John Donaldson and an infield out got the A's a run in the eighth. But the Tigers had three runs by then.

"I had probably the best stuff I've had in a long time," Wilson said, looking forward to another fast finish. Last year he was 9-7 at the All-Star break.

Newell Tops Hanover 8-4 In South Side

Newell downed Hanover 8-4 in a senior division South Side Athletic League contest at Newell Thursday night.

Ron Heffner was the winning pitcher, fanning nine and allowing four hits. Newell got only five hits, but loser Larry Cox walked 11. Scott Carnahan, John Manypenny, Heffner and Sam Carnahan doubled for Newell. Chuck Read had three hits, including a double, for the losers.

Sports Whirled

By TURK PIERCE
Review Sports Editor

The ad said: "Why do you suppose some people say baseball is a dull spectacle? No shoot-'em-up. No stabbing. No sex. No torture. No sock-thud. No robbery (except stolen bases). Baseball is just clean, wholesome fun. See the Mets . . ."

A good ad, but one with a horrifying implication. The implication is that the average American is interested in violence. And the implication is true.

More and more people have no respect for other people in this country. If two people disagree, violence is the usual way of settling the argument, be it with a gun, a knife or fists. Baseball, it is pointed out, is a sane pastime in a society off keel.

OUR SOCIETY is so enamored of violence that a lobbying group representing a very small percentage of people, the National Rifle Association, can influence Congress not to pass meaningful gun control legislation despite the fact that every day there is a new story of killing involving guns.

Despite the fact that Associated Press statistics show that states with tougher gun control laws have less murders. Despite the fact that these same statistics show that on a population basis, the United States has 130 times as many murders by gun as West Germany, 90 times as many murders as The Netherlands, and almost twice as many murders as the next worst non-communist industrialized nation, Australia.

Despite the fact that FBI chief J. Edgar Hoover, as long ago as 1946, called for stronger gun legislation. "There has been a strong lobby against firearms legislation by organizations of citizens of good standing who do not want to interfere with people hunting. But you have to register an automobile, and it would be just as simple to register a pistol, revolver and so forth," Hoover says.

SPORTSMEN, of course, commit very few of the gun murders. They feel they would be penalized under gun control legislation because of the acts of maniacs. They would. But people who never have an auto accident still have to register their cars, and cars are used only incidentally to kill. People who have no children still pay taxes to support schools. No tax can ever be completely fair.

Gun registration wouldn't eliminate crimes by gun. But it would cut them down, as the Europeans have shown. Almost every news publication in the country is calling for legislation, but the NRA has the ear of Congress. It was once said the pen is mightier than the sword, but apparently the typewriter is not as mighty as the gun.

Baseball may be dull, but it's better than getting shot.

Jim Musuraca Slams Homer

By TURK PIERCE
Review Sports Editor

East Liverpool Post 374 trounced Leetonia 8-1 in the opening round of the Columbiana County American Legion baseball tournament at Midland last night.

Bill Montgomery and Jim Musuraca shared the mound chores for the winners, scattering four hits, with Montgomery getting the win. Musuraca poled a long homer and Montgomery and Dan Cunningham tripled.

Cunningham also had a single and Bob Bartram had a pair of hits as Post 374 connected for nine safeties off loser Ted Conrad and reliever John Davis. Three errors led to five unearned runs.

Post 374 opened the scoring in the first with two runs scoring on a strikeout. Bartram singled and Cunningham walked and both moved up on a wild pitch with one out. Jim Duffy fanned, but the ball got away from catcher Davis and when he was low getting it at the backstop Cunningham scored all the way from a second. Shortstop Angelo (Poochie) Nicotera made a great grab of a liner by Tom Chambers and doubled Duffy off first to end the inning.

Post 374 really teed off on Conrad in the third. Bartram walked and Cunningham tripled him home. Rex Campbell singled to score Cunningham, moved to second on a wild pickoff attempt and scored when Duffy's grounder went through third baseman Kurt Bacon. Musuraca plated Duffy with a homer to deep center.

Leetonia's lone run scored in the fourth when Nicotera walked and Davis tripled. Montgomery bore down to get the next three batters on two strikeouts and a pop fly.

Post 374 closed out the scoring in the fifth when Campbell walked, took second on a wild pitch, went to third as Chambers got a scratch hit and scored on a passed ball.

The locals will play the winner of the Salem - Columbiana game in the next game of the double - elimination tournament, but first travel to New Philadelphia Saturday and Sunday for the district tournament. Post 374 drew a bye in the six - team field and will meet Millersburg at 4 p.m. Saturday. Three straight wins would clinch the district crown for Post 374.

Marichal Blanks Cards, Franks Hints Retirement

By HERSCHEL NISSENSON
Associated Press Sports Writer

Juan Marichal has finally caught up to the St. Louis Cardinals. If the rest of the San Francisco Giants can't say the same come Sept. 29 they'll be playing for a new manager next spring.

Just before Marichal blanked the Cards 3-0 Thursday night and evened his lifetime record against them at 15-15, Herman Franks confirmed reports that he would retire as manager of the Giants if they don't win the National League pennant.

Owner Horace Stoneham shouldn't have long to wait before applications start pouring in since the Giants still are in fourth place, 13 games behind St. Louis, after ending the Cards' winning streak at six games.

Elsewhere, Atlanta walloped Houston 7-1 and the New York Mets downed Pittsburgh 3-0. Los Angeles was rained out at Cincinnati and the Philadelphia Phillies and Chicago Cubs were not scheduled.

"Four years is enough," Franks said. "Change is good for everybody. I just made the statement that if we couldn't win the pennant this year, then I would resign. It's that simple."

Franks qualified the announcement by adding that "more than likely" he would return if the Giants did pull out a pennant. He said he mentioned his views to Stoneham about a month ago, but added, "We won't talk about it until after the season."

Marichal, the NL's top winner, ran his record to 17-4 with a four-hitter and even drove in a run with a second-inning single. He retired 17 batters in order over one stretch until Lou Brock singled to open the ninth.

The Giants scored twice off Steve Carlton in the second on singles by Willie Mays, Jim Hart, Hal Lanier and Marichal. They added a run in the eighth when Mays walked, stole second and scored on a single by Jesus Alou.

The Cardinals saw their league lead chopped to nine games when second-place Atlanta beat Houston behind the hitting of Tommie Aaron and Pat Jarvis' two-hit pitching.

Aaron broke a 1-1 tie with a bases-loaded triple in the third inning off Dave Giusti and knocked in another run with a single in the eighth. Not to be outdone, big brother Hank singled home a run in the ninth.

Jarvis, 10-6, has never lost to the Astros and beat them for the fifth time. He allowed singles by Hector Torres in the first and Doug Rader in the seventh.

Seaver tied a club record with his fourth shutout of the season as the Mets hopped back over Los Angeles and Pittsburgh into seventh place. Al Jackson did it in 1962, Carl Willey in 1963 and Jerry Koosman has already done it this year.

The Mets nicked Al McBean for all their runs in the sixth inning on Bud Harrelson's single, a walk, Art Shamsky's bunt hit, a force play and singles by Jerry Grote and Phil Linz.

Fleckman Fires 66, Leads PGA Golf By 2

SAN ANTONIO, Tex. (AP)—Marty Fleckman is leading the PGA golf championship through the coaching of Byron Nelson—but his tutor has picked another man.

"I wouldn't be a bit surprised if Lee Trevino went all the way to win this one," Nelson, a two time PGA titlist, said before the tournament started Thursday.

"I try to corner him every chance I get," said Fleckman, who turned pro only a year ago after leading the 1967 U.S. Open for three rounds as an amateur. "Byron got me back on the track after the U.S. Open this year when I missed the cut," Fleckman said. "I spent a whole day working with him then, and I've been in the money the last five or six weeks."

Fleckman, who won the Cajun Classic in his first start as a pro, said he thinks he is playing better now because he is starting to feel at home on the tour.

Beard, who missed a chance to share the lead when he bogeyed the last two holes, replied "no comment" when asked what he thought of the layout. Arnold Palmer, who opened with a 71, called the 18th hole "ridiculous" because only Jack Nicklaus was able to drive over the creek.

Nicklaus shot a 71, two strokes back of Trevino, Mason Rudolph and young Don Bies. Deadlocked at 70 were Dan Sikes, Charles Coody, Miller Barber, Johnny Pott, former PGA titlist Al Geiberger, Frank Boynton and Laurie Hammer.

Bill Casper, one of the pretournament favorites, slipped to a 74. Tom Weiskopf, another contender, soared to a 77. Dave Stockton, who won two titles and $62,000 in his last two starts on the tour, had 75 on the 7,096-yard course.

Defending champion Don January shot a 78, which left him in danger of missing the cut today when the field will be trimmed to the low 70 scorers and ties after the second round.

Marichal Blanks Cards, Franks Hints Retirement

By HERSCHEL NISSENSON
Associated Press Sports Writer

Juan Marichal has finally caught up to the St. Louis Cardinals. If the rest of the San Francisco Giants can't say the same come Sept. 29 they'll be playing for a new manager next spring.

Just before Marichal blanked the Cards 3-0 Thursday night and evened his lifetime record against them at 15-15, Herman Franks confirmed reports that he would retire as manager of the Giants if they don't win the National League pennant.

Owner Horace Stoneham shouldn't have long to wait before applications start pouring in since the Giants still are in fourth place, 13 games behind St. Louis, after ending the Cards' winning streak at six games.

Elsewhere, Atlanta walloped Houston 7-1 and the New York Mets downed Pittsburgh 3-0. Los Angeles was rained out at Cincinnati and the Philadelphia Phillies and Chicago Cubs were not scheduled.

"Four years is enough," Franks said. "Change is good for everybody. I just made the statement that if we couldn't win the pennant this year, then I would resign. It's that simple."

Franks qualified the announcement by adding that "more than likely" he would return if the Giants did pull out a pennant. He said he mentioned his views to Stoneham about a month ago, but added, "We won't talk about it until after the season."

Marichal, the NL's top winner, ran his record to 17-4 with a four-hitter and even drove in a run with a second-inning single. He retired 17 batters in order over one stretch until Lou Brock singled to open the ninth.

The Giants scored twice off Steve Carlton in the second on singles by Willie Mays, Jim Hart, Hal Lanier and Marichal. They added a run in the eighth when Mays walked, stole second and scored on a single by Jesus Alou.

The Cardinals saw their league lead chopped to nine games when second-place Atlanta beat Houston behind the hitting of Tommie Aaron and Pat Jarvis' two-hit pitching.

Aaron broke a 1-1 tie with a bases-loaded triple in the third inning off Dave Giusti and knocked in another run with a single in the eighth. Not to be outdone, big brother Hank singled home a run in the ninth.

Jarvis, 10-6, has never lost to the Astros and beat them for the fifth time. He allowed singles by Hector Torres in the first and Doug Rader in the seventh.

Seaver tied a club record with his fourth shutout of the season as the Mets hopped back over Los Angeles and Pittsburgh into seventh place. Al Jackson did it in 1962, Carl Willey in 1963 and Jerry Koosman has already done it this year.

The Mets nicked Al McBean for all their runs in the sixth inning on Bud Harrelson's single, a walk, Art Shamsky's bunt hit, a force play and singles by Jerry Grote and Phil Linz.

Fleckman Fires 66, Leads PGA Golf By 2

SAN ANTONIO, Tex. (AP)—Marty Fleckman is leading the PGA golf championship through the coaching of Byron Nelson—but his tutor has picked another man.

"I wouldn't be a bit surprised if Lee Trevino went all the way to win this one," Nelson, a two time PGA titlist, said before the tournament started Thursday.

Fleckman, a dark, handsome 24year-old, rode a hot putter to a four-under-par 66 on the maligned Pecan Valley course, taking a two-stroke edge over tour veteran Frank Beard.

"I try to corner him every chance I get," said Fleckman, who turned pro only a year ago after leading the 1967 U.S. Open for three rounds as an amateur.

"Byron got me back on the track after the U.S. Open this year when I missed the cut," Fleckman said. "I spent a whole day working with him then, and I've been in the money the last five or six weeks."

Fleckman, who won the Cajun Classic in his first start as a pro, said he thinks he is playing better now because he is starting to feel at home on the tour.

Beard, who missed a chance to share the lead when he bogeyed the last two holes, replied "no comment" when asked what he thought of the layout. Arnold Palmer, who opened with a 71, called the 18th hole "ridiculous" because only Jack Nicklaus was able to drive over the creek.

Nicklaus shot a 71, two strokes back of Trevino, Mason Rudolph and young Don Bies. Deadlocked at 70 were Dan Sikes, Charles Coody, Miller Barber, Johnny Pott, former PGA titlist Al Geiberger, Frank Boynton and Laurie Hammer.

Bill Casper, one of the pretournament favorites, slipped to a 74. Tom Weiskopf, another contender, soared to a 77. Dave Stockton, who won two titles and $62,000 in his last two starts on the tour, had 75 on the 7,096-yard course.

Defending champion Don January shot a 78, which left him in danger of missing the cut today when the field will be trimmed to the low 70 scorers and ties after the second round.

Wellsville Tops Salem In Softball

LISBON — Wellsville Merchants beat Quaker Security Service 13-8 in a softball league game Thursday night at Pine Tree Inn diamond.

In the other scheduled match, Lisbon Merchants posted a 7-0 victory by forfeit when Salineville Tangerine Lounge did not appear.

Kelly Graves had two homers and a single and Nick Compareta had 3-for-4 at the plate to lead the Wellsville attack.

Dave Beverly, Herb Call and Gary Steel had two hits each for the Quakers. John Carter was the winning pitcher and John Beverly the loser.

Softball league action will resume Monday evening with two games — Albco Foundry vs. East Liverpool at 5:45 and Wellsville Appliance vs. Toot Trucking at 7:15.

Junior Editors Quiz on THE MOON

QUESTION: Why is the moon's sky supposed to be black even when the sun is shining?

* * * *

ANSWER: The first moon explorers will probably be shocked by how different the landscape looks from that of the green, moist earth they have left. In our picture, the sun is shining brightly, illuminating the tops of the jagged moon mountains. This sunlight is reflected down from the home planet Earth, which rides proudly above its satellite, the moon. There is light in this landscape; but the sky, instead of being a clear, exhilarating blue, is black. This is because the moon has no atmosphere. Consequently, there are no molecules of water vapor, oxygen or other gases, or dust particles (1), to break up the sun's rays into brilliant colors and scatter them (2), as is the case on Earth (3). Our sky is blue because the blue rays are shorter and more widely scattered than the others. But with no atmosphere, you can't have those cheerful blue rays. Our little moon explorer Harry remembers this. Poor Harry! The only blues he's got are the moon blues, and he's got them badly.

War Protestors Use Tax Money For Fund

BOSTON (AP) — A group of war protestors is funneling tax money they consider would be used for war, into a fund which they say will be used for scholarships and other worthy causes.

Edward Webster, a business consultant who is one of the founders of the plan and is acting as its administrator, said Thursday he had deposited $6,500 in the fund.

Man Writes Epitaph For 20 Park Trees

On their trunks are draped this epitaph on crepe:

"All I wanted was to furnish shade for all, but I was killed when my bark was skinned."

Saxbe Urges Removal Of Soviet Force

CLEVELAND (AP) — Ohio Atty. Gen. William B. Saxbe has asked President Johnson to support "every peaceful effort to bring about withdrawal of Russian forces in Czechoslovakia."

Saxbe, the Republican candidate for U.S. Senate, said he sent a telegram to the President Thursday. Speaking Thursday night at a Captive Nations Week observance on Public Square, Saxbe urged immediate withdrawal of Russian troops from Czechoslovakia.

He said this country "must reaffirm its desire for self-determination for each nation in a united Europe" and be alert to every opportunity to assist the captive nations as we did in Western Europe with the Marshall Plan and the North Atlantic Alliance."

The GOP candidate also made a bid for support from Democratic Sen. Frank J. Lausche, who appeared on the program with him.

"As a candidate for the U.S. Senate, I am determined to continue Frank Lausche's efforts in the Congress—to bring freedom to the captive nations and self-determination to other countries of the world, including Southeast Asia."

Saxbe supporters indicated they expected Lausche to endorse the Republican candidate, but when Lausche followed Saxbe to the stand he merely thanked the attorney general "for the kind remarks you made about me."

Opposing Saxbe in the Nov. 5 election is John J. Gilligan of Cincinnati, who defeated Lausche in the May primary.

Two Autos Involved In Mishap At Lisbon

LISBON — Cars driven by Douglas J. Pitts, 18, of 1210 E. 3rd St., Salem, and Avis G. Dysert, 25, of Park Way, East Liverpool RD 3, collided at 7:45 a.m. today at the junction of Route 45 (N. Market St.) and Route 164 (Jerome St.). No one was injured. Police estimated $200 damage to each car.

Pitts forfeited a $15 bond on a charge of failure to yield the right-of-way. Police said he was traveling south on Market and made a left turn onto Jerome in the path of the northbound Dysert car.

Firemen Not Able To Catch The Blaze

First it was sighted in East Deerfield, but the train had gone before firemen could get there. A call went ahead to North Adams, but firemen reached trackside just too late. Same in Williamstown, a few miles farther west.

Inventor Dies At 80

RACINE, Wis. (AP) — A.J. Dremel, 80, inventor of numerous small power tools for home workshops and hobbyists and founder of the Dremel Manufacturing Co., died Thursday after a long illness. He established the firm after retiring from a career as an industrial designer.

WORLD ALMANAC FACTS

There were 81,253 local governments in the United States at the beginning of 1967, a decrease of almost 10,000 since 1962. The decrease came mainly in the number of school districts, which dropped from 34,678 in 1962, to 21,782 in 1967. This reduction of over one - third was predominantly the result of widespread school reorganization and consolidation for reasons of efficiency.

Continuances Granted In 2 Traffic Charges

Municipal Judge Samuel M. Chertoff today granted continuances until next week in hearings for two cited motorists.

He set a trial Monday at 9 a.m. for William E. Chestnut, 18, of Glenmoor, who pleaded not guilty to a charge of crashing a traffic light at Dresden Ave. and 6th St. Chestnut was cited Thursday at 11:48 a.m. by Patrolman H. Clyde Dillon.

The court set a trial Tuesday for Frank Irving of 1209 Jennings Ave., who pleaded innocent to a charge of driving while under the influence of alcohol. Irving's $500 bond was continued. He was cited after a traffic mishap Thursday night on Avondale St.

Robert Coy, 24, of Meakin St. was fined $10 and costs on a charge of operating a vehicle with a faulty muffler. He was cited Tuesday on Broadway by Patrolman Charles Coen.

Rockefeller Meets Ohio's 43 Delegates

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — Gov. Nelson A. Rockefeller was a big hit with the crowds during his visit to Ohio Thursday.

The New Yorker seemed happy with the progress he made in putting himself over to the Ohio delegation, whose support he admits will be crucial to the success of his presidential campaign.

"The American people are disturbed about the future of our own country and the future abroad. We're overwhelmed by crises and we don't understand why.

"What we lack is leadership and understanding," he added.

"I've got faith in America. I want to give leadership that looks ahead. We don't want to be afraid of change. Let's make the Republican party the voice of the American people."

When Rockefeller arrived, he waded into the throng, shaking hands and kissing babies. As he struggled to the platform, a band played "When the Saints Go Marching In."

The meeting with the delgates was closed but Rockefeller later told newsmen that the delegates "asked a lot of questions and I answered them very frankly and forthrightly. They got to know me and what I stand for."

Forty - three delegates and 39 alternates, including Gov. James A. Rhodes and State Republican Chairman John S. Andrews, met with Rockefeller. Rhodes would make no comment later to newsmen. All but three of the 58 delegates are committed to Rhodes' favorite son candidacy.

Female Rights Group Find Need Of A Man

NEW YORK (AP) — The National Organization for Women —NOW—is a group dedicated to achieving full equality for women. Its members claim women are just as capable as men in almost every field.

But Thursday night the women had to turn to a man for help. They opened the windows in their midtown Manhattan meeting room, nullifying the air conditioning, and had to call a handyman to close the windows, start the air conditioning again, and save them from the sweltering heat outside.

Sen. McCarthy Pulls Boo-Boo In Charlotte

CHARLOTTE, N.C. (AP) — Sen. Eugene J. McCarthy, speaking at Charlotte's Douglas Municipal airport Thursday, forgot where he was.

"Thank you all in South Carolina," the candidate said to an enthusiastic crowd of about 1,500.

After a few scattered boos McCarthy realized his mistake and said at least he knew he was in the South and Charlotte's welcome was the warmest yet in his campaign. The official airport temperature was 86 degrees.

Youth Gets Choice — 'College Or Prison'

PORTLAND, Ore. (AP) — A circuit court judge has ordered Steven Brock Hannibal, 18 to finish college or go to prison.

Judge Robert E. Jones placed Hannibal, of Eagle Rock, Ore., on five years probation for illegal possession of marijuana.

As conditions of probation, the judge ordered the youth Thursday to return to college in the fall, to maintain satisfactory grades and to graduate.

The alternative, the judge said, was five years in the Oregon State Correctional Institution.

Pennsylvania Ave. in Washington has borne the funeral processions of six presidents.

The GOP candidate also made a bid for support from Democratic Sen. Frank J. Lausche, who appeared on the program with him.

"As a candidate for the U.S. Senate, I am determined to continue Frank Lausche's efforts in the Congress—to bring freedom to the captive nations and self-determination to other countries of the world, including Southeast Asia."

Saxbe supporters indicated they expected Lausche to endorse the Republican candidate, but when Lausche followed Saxbe to the stand he merely thanked the attorney general "for the kind remarks you made about me."

Opposing Saxbe in the Nov. 5 election is John J. Gilligan of Cincinnati, who defeated Lausche in the May primary.

Two Autos Involved In Mishap At Lisbon

LISBON — Cars driven by Douglas J. Pitts, 18, of 1210 E. 3rd St., Salem, and Avis G. Dysert, 25, of Park Way, East Liverpool RD 3, collided at 7:45 a.m. today at the junction of Route 45 (N. Market St.) and Route 164 (Jerome St.). No one was injured. Police estimated $200 damage to each car.

Pitts forfeited a $15 bond on a charge of failure to yield the right-of-way. Police said he was traveling south on Market and made a left turn onto Jerome in the path of the northbound Dysert car.

Firemen Not Able To Catch The Blaze

It was in a boxcar Wednesday in a Boston & Maine westbound freight train.

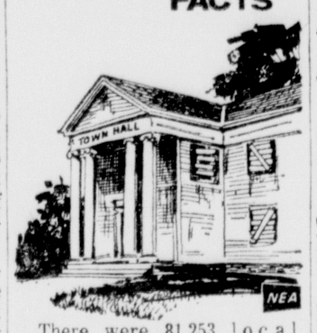

First it was sighted in East Deerfield, but the train had gone before firemen could get there. A call went ahead to North Adams, but firemen reached trackside just too late. Same in Williamstown, a few miles farther west.

Inventor Dies At 80

RACINE, Wis. (AP) — A.J. Dremel, 80, inventor of numerous small power tools for home workshops and hobbyists and founder of the Dremel Manufacturing Co., died Thursday after a long illness. He established the firm after retiring from a career as an industrial designer.

WORLD ALMANAC FACTS

There were 81,253 local governments in the United States at the beginning of 1967, a decrease of almost 10,000 since 1962. The decrease came mainly in the number of school districts, which dropped from 34,678 in 1962, to 21,782 in 1967. This reduction of over one - third was predominantly the result of widespread school reorganization and consolidation for reasons of efficiency.

Continuances Granted In 2 Traffic Charges

Municipal Judge Samuel M. Chertoff today granted continuances until next week in hearings for two cited motorists.

He set a trial Monday at 9 a.m. for William E. Chestnut, 18, of Glenmoor, who pleaded not guilty to a charge of crashing a traffic light at Dresden Ave. and 6th St. Chestnut was cited Thursday at 11:48 a.m. by Patrolman H. Clyde Dillon.

The court set a trial Tuesday for Frank Irving of 1209 Jennings Ave., who pleaded innocent to a charge of driving while under the influence of alcohol. Irving's $500 bond was continued. He was cited after a traffic mishap Thursday night on Avondale St.

Robert Coy, 24, of Meakin St. was fined $10 and costs on a charge of operating a vehicle with a faulty muffler. He was cited Tuesday on Broadway by Patrolman Charles Coen.

Rockefeller Meets Ohio's 43 Delegates

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — Gov. Nelson A. Rockefeller was a big hit with the crowds during his visit to Ohio Thursday.

The New Yorker seemed happy with the progress he made in putting himself over to the Ohio delegation, whose support he admits will be crucial to the success of his presidential campaign.

Addressing a cheering crowd of 6,000 outside the Statehouse in Columbus, Rockefeller declared:

"The American people are disturbed about the future of our own country and the future abroad. We're overwhelmed by crises and we don't understand why.

"What we lack is leadership and understanding," he added.

"I've got faith in America. I want to give leadership that looks ahead. We don't want to be afraid of change. Let's make the Republican party the voice of the American people."

When Rockefeller arrived, he waded into the throng, shaking hands and kissing babies. As he struggled to the platform, a band played "When the Saints Go Marching In."

The meeting with the delegates was closed but Rockefeller later told newsmen that the delegates "asked a lot of questions and I answered them very frankly and forthrightly. They got to know me and what I stand for."

Forty - three delegates and 39 alternates, including Gov. James A. Rhodes and State Republican Chairman John S. Andrews, met with Rockefeller. Rhodes would make no comment later to newsmen. All but three of the 58 delegates are committed to Rhodes' favorite son candidacy.

Female Rights Group Find Need Of A Man

NEW YORK (AP) — The National Organization for Women —NOW—is a group dedicated to achieving full equality for women. Its members claim women are just as capable as men in almost every field.

But Thursday night the women had to turn to a man for help. They opened the windows in their midtown Manhattan meeting room, nullifying the air conditioning, and had to call a handyman to close the windows, start the air conditioning again, and save them from the sweltering heat outside.

Sen. McCarthy Pulls Boo-Boo In Charlotte

CHARLOTTE, N.C. (AP) — Sen. Eugene J. McCarthy, speaking at Charlotte's Douglas Municipal airport Thursday, forgot where he was.

"Thank you all in South Carolina," the candidate said to an enthusiastic crowd of about 1,500.

After a few scattered boos McCarthy realized his mistake and said at least he knew he was in the South and Charlotte's welcome was the warmest yet in his campaign. The official airport temperature was 86 degrees.

Youth Gets Choice — 'College Or Prison'

PORTLAND, Ore. (AP) — A circuit court judge has ordered Steven Brock Hannibal, 18 to finish college or go to prison.

Judge Robert E. Jones placed Hannibal, of Eagle Rock, Ore., on five years probation for illegal possession of marijuana.

As conditions of probation, the judge ordered the youth Thursday to return to college in the fall, to maintain satisfactory grades and to graduate.

The alternative, the judge said, was five years in the Oregon State Correctional Institution.

Pennsylvania Ave. in Washington has borne the funeral processions of six presidents.

DOES FREEZING MEAT MAKE IT TENDER??
ANSWER—NO! You only get out of your freezer what you put into it. In fact, in freezing meat, it tends to lose some of it's tenderness and quality unless it is processed properly. Our Flash-Freeze method assures your meats of retaining the high quality. Stop in, let us explain it to you.
